QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to state that there are pending, before the Committee on State Government, bills to adopt a State song for Pennsylvania. Arrangements have been made for some musicians to be in the rotunda of the Capitol at 1:30 P. M. to render the song, and I hope that the members of the Senate in general, and the members of the Committee on State Government in particular, may be present at that occasion. The party, I believe, will be personally conducted by my friend, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT.. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I understand that there is also a bill by the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy; and I have a bill in here for a State song. I would like to know which song will be sung this afternoon.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I will answer by saying that if Senator Ealy has presented a bill of that kind it has not yet appeared, to my knowledge. I will be very glad to make a similar arrangement for Senator Ealy, if he wishes me to do so.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not purpose singing the song myself, but if there is a singing of any of these songs to be adopted I think there should not be any discrimination, and especially with regard to this song of the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, which has been publicized over the State.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, we will be glad to have them all sung.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, if the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, and the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, will get a chorus and a band, we will listen to them any time; but they cannot expect us to get a chorus and a band up here to sing their song.

The House met at 11:00 A. M.
The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Marshal L. Shepard, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy name be glory for Thy mercy and for Thy truth. As we gather here in this hall, the servants of this great Commonwealth, we pray Thee that we may be kindly and merciful in our relations one with another, that together we may assure the logalty to Thy truth and ever seek to do Thy will in all that we shall undertake.

Bless the Speaker of this House, the Governor of this Commonwealth and all the officers of this great government, that in all of our work may Thy will be done and Thy glory have domain. In His name and for His sake, Amen.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. JOHN E. BROWN, RESOLUTION NO. 160.

In the House of Representatives, May 27, 1935.

Whereas, The employes who are required to replace electric light bulbs on the ceiling fixtures of the Hall of the House of Representatives are exposed to extreme dangers because of improper facilities which are not available for this work; and

Whereas, The inherent right of a citizen to life and health is so valuable that the immortal Woodrow Wilson, in reply to criticisms during the war period over the expenditure of money said, "I would invest a million dollars to save one American boy;" and

Whereas, The members of this House, many of whom are fathers, do not wish any employe to unnecessarily endanger his life in order to provide brilliant lighting effects; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of this House appoint a Committee of three members of this House to investigate the cost of safe equipment for the use of employes in replacing electric light bulbs in the ceiling fixtures of the Hall of the House of Representatives and to report to the House as early as possible.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary Local.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2501 entitled

An Act providing for the utilization of labor of adult men who are employed and receiving relief through the State Emergency Relief Board in the construction and maintenance of airports and hangars for Boroughs Cities and Counties in which they reside

Whereas Many unemployed persons receiving public relief are unable to secure any employment and

Whereas It is the duty of the Commonwealth to provide shelter for unemployed persons and moneys are appropriated to the State Emergency Relief Board for such purposes and

Whereas The Commonwealth cannot indefinitely continue to provide relief for unemployed persons without some reimbursement in the form of constructive improvement of the Commonwealth for the benefit of its taxpaying citizens and creating some new business or occupations which can when established furnish work in ways not now available and

Whereas The present policy of administering relief produces nothing which will tend to end the necessity for relief by making new fields of employment therefor

The first section was read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the county commissioners of any county the mayor of any city or the burgess of any borough shall have he authority to employ men eighteen years of age or older residing in their county city or borough who are receiving public relief for periods up to thirty hours per week and not over six hours per day upon the construction extension improvement or maintenance of airports and hangars thereon belonging to or leased by said county city or borough

They shall provide transportation for said workers so employed to and from work where the distance is over one mile from the said workers residence They shall carry workmen's compensation insurance on said workers They shall pay said workers so employed at the end of each period of thirty hours such wages as said county city or borough can reasonably afford but not less than the sum of ten cents per hour in cash Said compensation shall be in addition to any relief now received and shall not be considered as employment which will deprive the worker so occupied and receiving such compensation of the right to continue to receive unemployment relief in the same manner and to the same extent as though he were wholly unemployed Provided however that any such person offered such employment and who shall refuse to accept such employment or to work thereon willingly when physically able to do so and without having any other remunerative work available shall be reported by said commissioner mayor or burgess to the State Emergency Relief Board who shall upon being satisfied of such refusal having been made without good cause deprive such individual refusing such work of all further public relief This refusal however shall not deprive the wife and children of relief which however must thereafter be administered solely to and through the wife or mother

On the question,

Will the House agree to the sections?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like permission of the House to make a statement in regard to the bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The bill is before the House and if the gentleman wishes to discuss it, he may do so.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill which is on second reading today is the first of a series of bills which I introduced sometime ago with the intention of enabling the authorities of the different municipalities in the Commonwealth to utilize the services of the adult male citizens who are receiving public relief in the construction, maintenance, or improvement of sundry enterprizes which would be for the public benefit, in the communities in which those persons reside. I have stated before and I again repeat, that this bill is merely an effort in that direction. I intend to ask to have this bill kept on second reading until tomorrow, for the reason that I would like any members of the House who have given this matter thought and who have any constructive ideas for the utilization of persons on relief for the benefit of the Commonwealth, to confer with me and offer any amendments which will be for the improvement of the bill. I wish to assure my fellow members of the House that I think that this is a very important enterprise. The labor of thousands of people who are on relief should not be wasted, if by the addition of a small amount of cash the communities in which they reside can bring out of this depression some lasting and permanent benefit, by all means we should secure that benefit and come out of this depression with a better State to live in.

I do not wish to call this bill up today. I would like to have it remain on second reading until tomorrow and I invite all of the members of the House who have any constructive ideas along this line to confer with me for the purpose of adding any beneficial amendments to the bill that they may want. I would like to have this bill remain on second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1898, as follows:

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1373 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1373, Printer's No. 1062, entitled:

An Act relating to local taxation; establishing a centralized system in counties of the second class for the collection of all county, borough, town, township, and certain school and poor taxes except in certain cases through the county treasurer as county tax collector defining the powers and duties of the county tax collector and of counties boroughs towns and townships and school and poor districts regulating date of certification of tax levies abolishing the office of county borough town township school and poor district tax collector upon the expiration of existing terms defining offenses and imposing penalties and repealing existing laws which was laid upon the table be taken from the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, ninety five members having voted in the affirmative and sixty-eight in th negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to transcribe the bill for third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. HIRSCH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Berks vote?

Mr. RUTH. I voted in the affirmative, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Schuylkill vote?

Mr. HIRSCH. I voted in the majority, Mr. Speaker?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the bill on second reading as amended be reconsidered?

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to section one as amended be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the amendment to section one be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, sometime age the amendments offered by me to take out of this bill all of the counties with the exception of counties of second class were adopted. Since that time there has been considerable parliamentary dickering with this bill, which was done primarily for this purpose of putting the question in such a position that it could be brought before the House at this time to determine whether or not these amendments should remain in the bill. When the motion was originally made to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading, it was upon an agreement between the sponsors and myself for the sole reason of permitting this question to be decided on the merits rather than on any technicality. I make that as a statement because there seems to have been considerable confusion as to the procedure in connection with this. The question is now before the House as to whether or not these amendments should be inserted in this bill. I feel now exactly as I did at the time that I introduced these amendments. I feel that the people of the counties which are primarily affected by this bill do not want it. I was informed prior to introducing this amendment that the people from Allegheny did want this bill or at least the Representatives from Allegheny county seemed to think that their people did want this bill, and, therefore, I thought that it was proper to give them this bill, and I gave them the opportunity to have this bill and to try the experiment which I personally believe will be a failure under our present system of taxation in Pennsylvania. However, I am not so sure that the representatives from Allegheny county really do want this bill. They now have the opportunity to get this bill by leaving in counties of the second class, and that will remove, I believe, a great deal of the objection which was made to this bill. So, I call now on the members from Allegheny county who honestly and truly believe that their people want this bill, and who themselves honestly and truly want this bill, to vote in favor of keeping in the amendments which I have offered. I believe that the majority of the people who will be affected by this bill do not want it. I could take up hours of time in setting forth the reasons but I do not propose to do so at this time, but I merely call upon all the members of this House who sincerely and truly and honestly believe that this bill in its present form is not workable under our present system of taxation, and who do not want to try this bill in their own county, to vote to keep in the amendments which I have offered, and I ask the members from Allegheny county if they truly and honestly believe that this is a good bill for Allegheny county, to vote to keep in the amendments for this county which I have offered.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MORAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker, is it the intention of the sponsor of this bill to eventually add an amendment which would make it local option to the counties?

Mr. MORAN. It is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, since that question has been raised as to the amending of the bill to make it optional, I do not want to debate that question because I do not think that it is before the House, but nevertheless, as the question has been raised, I think it is altogether proper for me to say at this time, by the authority of the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, who is recognized as a very outstanding constitutional lawyer, that this bill is impossible to be amended in such a way that it will make it optional, and that any such amendment would be unquestionably unconstitutional. That opinion was also concurred in by a Deputy Attorney General.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the remarks just made by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, regarding the possibility of the unconstitutionality of the local option feature in this measure has been a controversy, and I beg to correct his statement in that the Attorney General's Department in its latest ruling, after a very comprehensive search, feels that it would be constitutional to have a local option clause inserted in this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WOODSIDE and Mr. SHREINER and were as follows:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2498, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-seven) entitled "An Act relating to the business of building and loan associations providing for the organization and voluntary dissolution of such association defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such associations and of their officers directors shareholders solicitors and other employes prohibiting the transaction of business in this Commonwealth by foreign building and loan associations conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers establishing limitations of actions imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts" by requiring secretaries of building and loan associations to be licensed by the Department of Banking and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Section 410 of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-seven) entitled "An act relating ot the business of building and loan associations providing for the organization and voluntary dissolution of such associations defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such associations and of their officers directors shareholders solicitors and other employes prohibiting the transaction of business in this Commonwealth by foreign building and loan associations conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers establishing limitations of actions imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 410 Officers of Associations Removal License Compensation A Every association shall have a president a vice-president a secretary and a treasurer and may have such additional officers as shall be provided for in the by-laws Any two or more officers may be held by the same person except that the same person shall not at the same time be holder of more than one of the following offices President vice-president secretary treasurer and solicitor in addition when an association has a conveyancer the president vice-president secretary or treasurer of such association shall not at the same time be the conveyancer of the association

B The officers of an association shall be selected at least annually by the board of directors unless the by-laws provide a different method The president vice-president and secretary of an association shall be required to be members of the board of directors of the association and the secretary shall be required to be licensed by the department pursuant to the provisions of the Department of Banking Code

Any person who shall after the first day of January nineteen hundred and thirty-six act as secretary of a building and loan association without a license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or undergo an imprisonment for a period of not more than one year or both in the discretion of the court

C Unless specifically provided otherwise in the by-laws the board of directors shall fix the compensation of all officers

D Any officer may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the association will be served thereby but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights if any of the person so removed

E Unless specifically provided otherwise in the by-laws the board of directors shall have the power to fill any vacancies created by the death removal resignation or otherwise of any officer

F The officers as between themselves and the association shall have such authority and perform such duties as shall be specified by the by-laws

Section 2 This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if I interpret the provisions of this bill correctly, there is no allowance for a temporary secretary, and there would be a penalty in case of a secretary who became ill or could not attend a meeting of building and loan association. If there happened to be an important meeting of a building and loan association they could not transact their business because of the absence of the secretary, because there is a heavy penalty provided and no temporary secretary is provided for in the bill. This bill provides for no appointment or election of a temporary secretary of a building and loan association in case of the absence or sickness or for any cause of the secretary. They could, therefore, not take the minutes, because they would be subject to a fine. Could this bill not be amended to provide that there may be a temporary secretary elected or appointed. Would the sponsor of the bill agree to the amendment or recommit it for the purpose of amendment? I have two other suggestions to make.

Will the gentleman make that as a motion?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SINWELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2191, as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section eight of the said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred thirty-one) and the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred eighty-eight) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 8 [Whenever it shall appear to the Secretary of Highways that any part or portion of a State highway as now or hereafter defined and described is dangerous or inconvenient to the traveling public in its present location either by reason of width grades dangerous turns or other local conditions or that the expense to the Commonwealth in the construction building rebuilding maintenance and repair thereof would be too great or unreasonable and could be materially reduced or lessened by a change of the road or route] The Secretary of Highways is hereby empowered to change alter or establish the width lines location or grades of [such] any State highway or any intersecting road in such manner as in his discretion may seem best in order to correct [said] danger or inconvenience to the traveling public or lessen the cost to the Commonwealth [and] in the construction reconstruction or maintenance thereof After the relocation has been opened to traffic the Secretary of Highways by notice to the local authorities may abandon as a State highway route all or any part of the section of highway between the termini of the relocation Where the [portion of the line or route so abandoned shall be entirely contiguous to the new line or being of a length not exceeding one half of a mile shall have both termini in the new route whereby such new route supplies and takes the place of the abandoned portion so that in the opinion of the Secretary of Highways the same shall be unnecessary for public use and travel or burdensome or dangerous the Secretary of Highways may at any time by written order declare the portion of the road so abandoned to be vacated and thereafter the same shall be closed to public use and travel and shall no longer be a public road or where the portion of the line or route so abandoned shall have both termini in the new route whereby such] new route in the judgment of the Secretary of Highways supplies and takes the place of any part of such abandoned portion and such part is of a length [in excess] of [one-half mile and] not more than two miles the Secretary of Highways being of the opinion that such part shall be unnecessary for public use and travel or burdensome or dangerous and having due regard for the convenience of access to the new highway by the owners of property abutting on such to be vacated [upon being requested so to do by a petition part may at any time by written order declare such part signed by the owners of property comprising at least three-fourths of the lineal foot frontage which abuts the part to be vacated] and thereafter the part so vacated shall be closed to public use and travel and shall no longer be a public road Provided That the said Secretary of Highways shall first submit a plan of the proposed change and any proposed order of vacation to the Governr and that the same shall be approved by him and filed as a public record in the office of the Department of Highways The approval of such plan or plans by the Governor shall be considered to be the condemnation of an easement for highway purposes from all property within the lines marked as required for right-of-way and the condemnation of an easement of support or protection from all property within the lines marked as required for slopes

The Secretary of Highways shall also have power with the approval of the Governor to establish the ultimate width and lines of any State highway for future construction before or after the construction reconstruction or improvement of the same not however exceeding the maximum width fixed by law for public roads [Whenever the Secretary of Highways shall establish the] The establishment of such ultimate width and lines [of any such State highway] for future construction [he] shall [cause] be by a description and plan [thereof to be made] showing the center line of said highway and the established ultimate width thereof for future construction [and shall attach thereto his] bearing the acknowledgment [.] of the Secretary of Highways Thereupon such description plan and acknowledgment shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county in a separate book kept for such purpose which shall be furnished to the recorder of deeds by the county commissioners at the expense of the county All costs of the recording as herein provided shall be paid by the county

The Secretary of Highways shall have power with the approval of the Governor to change any plan of record by reducing the width of any State highway or section thereof established as hereinbefore provided by causing a new description and plan thereof to be made showing the center line of said highway and the new established width thereof and shall attach thereto his acknowledgment Thereupon such description plan and acknowledgment shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county as hereinbefore provided and a notation shall be made on the prior plan that the same has been replaced by a later plan

No person shall [hereafter] be entitled [for a period of two years from the approval of this act] to recover any damages for any buildings or improvements of any kind which shall or may be placed or constructed upon or within the lines of any such State highway after the same shall have been established for future construction and recorded as aforesaid

No person shall be entitled to damages by reason of such establishment of the ultimate width and lines of a State highway for future construction and where the Commonwealth by its proper authorities has improved and constructed or shall hereafter improve and construct such State highway and in so doing has taken or shall take a part only of the lands lying within the lines shown by such plan damages shall be allowed for and to the extent of such actual taking only Such taking shall be deemed to occur only when right-of-way plans or construction drawings prepared by the Department of Highways showing thereon the right-of-way required for highway purposes and for slopes shall have been approved by the Secretary of Highways and the Governor and filed as a public record in the office of the Department of Highways

Section 2 Section Ten of the said Act as last amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one thousand four hundred two) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 10 Anything herein contained or any apportionment of the State into highway districts shall not be construed as including or in any manner interfering with the roads streets and highways in any of the cities boroughs or incorporated towns of the Commonwealth Provided That where any road streets or highway shall form a part or section of any State highway as now or hereafter established within the limits of any borough or incorporated town the Department of Highways shall improve or reconstruct any section or sections of such road street or highway which have heretofore been maintained or are hereafter established as State highways to be maintained by the Department of Highways to such width as it may deem advisable at the expense of the Commonwealth

The maintenance of any road street or highway which forms a part or section of any State highway as now or hereafter established within the limits of any borough or incorporated town shall be done by the Department of Highways at the expense of the Commonwealth Provided That all improvements reconstruction and maintenance of any road street or highway in boroughs or incorporated towns shall be of such width and type as may be determined by the Secretary of Highways

The Department of Highways shall also construct reconstruct and maintain any bridge over a stream which the borough or incorporated town is obligated to maintain and which bridge is located on or forms a part of a State highway [established prior to the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one] within the limits of any borough or incorporated town Provided That nothing herein contained shall authorize any assessment to be made against the Commonwealth by reason of or to assist in the elimination of any grade crossing on any highway within the limits of a borough or incorporated town and no such assessment shall hereafter be made under any act of Assembly heretofore enacted And provided further That nothing in this act shall be construed as placing on the Commonwealth the payment of any costs of construction or reconstruction of any such bridges in boroughs or incorporated towns for the construction or reconstruction of which a contract has been let prior to the effective date of this act and the Department of Highways shall not assume the obligation for the construction reconstruction or maintenance thereof until such contract has been performed

No opening shall be made in the surface of any improved highway which is maintained by the Department of Highways under the authority of this act within the limits of any borough or incorporated town until and unless a permit has been obtained for such opening either from the municipal authorities or from the Department of Highways pursuant to an ordinance passed subsequent to the approval of this act authorizing the Department of Highways to act for the municipality Where a permit is not obtained from the Department of Highways as above provided the borough or incorporated town shall require a cash deposit or bond conditioned upon the proper restoration of the surface and shall be responsible to the Department of Highways for the cost of the restoration of such surface in accordance with the adopted standards of the Department of Highways for the particular type of construction Any person firm or corporation opening the improved surface of any street or highways without having first obtained a permit as hereinbefore provided shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty-five ($25) dollars and in addition thereto the cost of prosecution and surface restoration costs and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five days

Section 3 That Section Sixteen of said act as amended by Act of Assembly approved the second day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred nine) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 16 Before the Secretary of Highways shall undertake the construction reconstruction or improvement of any State highway on the plan of the State highways wherein a change of width or of existing lines and location is necessary and damage is likely to result to abutting property he shall notify the county commissioners of the proper county in writing of the contemplated change in such existing width lines and location After the county commissioners have agreed to such changes or refused to agree thereto as hereinafter provided the Secretary of Highways may proceed with the work of construction reconstruction and improvement After the receipt of the notice as above provided the county commissioners if they approve such change of width or of existing lines and location and agree thereto in writing shall when possible enter into an agreement with the owner or owners of said property as to amount of damage to be paid to the said owner or owners Whenever the amount so agreed upon shall exceed the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) the same shall not be paid by the county until the proposed agreement shall have been filed by the county commissioners in the office of the prothonotary of the county in which the property damaged is situated If no exceptions are filed thereto within ten days after notice given by publication as hereinafter provided the county commissioners may pay the amount so agreed upon If exceptions thereto are filed within ten days after such notice the proceedings shall be presented to the court of quarter sessions for its approval The court shall fix a time for hearing the matter at which time the parties to such agreement and any taxpayer therein and their witnesses shall be heard and the court shall either approve or disapprove the agreement as it deems proper If the court disapproves the agreement it shall indicate a sum which it would approve for such case if the county commissioners and the property owner could agree thereon In such cases if the property owner and the county commissioners should agree on the amount of damages indicated by the court as acceptable to it such agreement may be entered into and shall be final and binding on the said parties without any further approval by the court Notice of the filing of such agreement in the office of the prothonotary and of the time and place of hearing in all such cases shall be given by one publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation throughout the county which shall state that any taxpayer may file exceptions to the agreement or may appear at such hearing and be heard together with his witnesses as the case may be Only such payments as to which no exceptions have been filed or as have been approved by the court as above provided shall be paid by the county or in case an agreement satisfactory to the county commissioners and said owner or owners cannot be made and the approval of the court thereto secured the owner or owners of said property damaged thereby or the commissioners of the proper county may present their petition to the court of quarter sessions for the appointment of viewers to ascertain and asses such damages The proceedings upon said petition and by the viewers shall be governed by existing laws relating to the ascertainment and assessment of damages for opening public highways The county commissioners or any other party to such proceedings may appeal from the award of the viewers to the court of common pleas and shall be entitled to a trial by jury From the judgment of the court of common pleas an appeal may be had to the Supreme or Superior Court as in other cases Such damages when ascertained shall be paid by the county in which the State highway is located Whenever the county commissioners do not consent to or approve any such change of width or of existing lines and location and the Secretary of Highways determines such change to be necessary he shall when possible enter into an agreement with the owner or owners of said property as to the amount of damages to be paid therefor and if agreed upon such damages shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys in the Motor License Fund or if such agreement cannot be made the owner or owners of said property damaged thereby or the Commonwealth may present their or its petition to the court of quarter sessions for the appointment of viewers to ascertain and assess such damage as well as any benefits in the same manner and with the same right of appeal to the owner or owners and to the Commonwealth as is hereinbefore provided in cases where the county agreed to such change but the damages when ascertained shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys in the Motor License Fund The county shall also be liable for any damages sustained by abutting property owners for a change of the width or lines of roads intersecting State highways where such damages are made necessary as a result of the changing with their consent and approval of the width lines or location for the construction of a State highway such damages to be ascertained in the manner as herein provided for damages occasioned as a result of the change with their consent and approval of width or of existing lines and location of State highways and in case the commissioners shall not have consented to and approved such change of width or of existing lines or location then such damage shall be paid by the Commonwealth and shall be ascertained in the same manner as herein provided for damages for land taken as a result of the change of width or of existing lines and location of State highways without the consent and approval of the county commissioners and such damages shall also be paid from the Motor License Fund The county [or Commonwelath] shall also provide for the removal of all structures within the lines of the highway as thus established [as may be] unless otherwise provided by agreement between said county and the Secretary of Highways and in case the same is to be done by the Commonwealth the cost thereof shall also be paid out of the Motor License Fund Any moneys in the Motor License Fund necessary to make the payments required by this section are hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Highways

If the county refuses to assume all damages in connection with the relcoation or widening of any highways as hereinbefore provided the county commissioners and the Secretary of Highways may thereafter agree that the county shall pay a portion thereof to either the owners or to the Department of Highways or shall perform specified work for the benefit of the owner in lieu thereof or shall participate in the total damage expense in such other manner as may be agreed upon

Nothing containg in this act shall be construed as placing on the Commonwealth the payment of any damages or costs incident to the change of width lines or location of any State highway where such highway was widened or the lines or location changed prior to the date this act takes affect but all such damages and costs shall be paid by the county in the manner provided by this act as if the county had agreed thereto as herein provided

Section 4 That section seventeen of the said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred eighty-eight) is hereby further amended to read as follows

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 452, entitled:

An Act to amend part of section one of the act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-five) entitled "An act to fix the number of Representatives in the General Assembly of the State and to apportion the State into representative districts as provided by the Constitution" by changing such districts in Lancaster County

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, this bill affects only the second legislative district of Lancaster County and it is so important to us that I wish to take a few minutes of your time to speak in opposition to it. Lawrence County is composed of two districts; the first, which comprises the city of Lancaster and is represented at this session by Mr. George Downey and the second district which comprises the rest of the county and is represented by Mr. Spangler, Mr. Trout and myself. This bill provides that the second district shall be divided into three separate districts. I am opposed to its passage because there is no demand for it.

The people are not asking for a change and we are well satisfied to leave it as it is now. In looking over the legislative directory, I find that there are some fifty legislative districts that have two or more members, so therefore, I don't see why our district should be singled out to be changed and leave the other forty-nine alone. It seems to me that if there was any demand for a change that the members from the second district would have been consulted, but to date, I have not been interviewed by a single person, either a Republican or a Democrat, in favor of a change. This district has not been changed for at least twenty-five or thirty years and as I said before there is no demand for a change.

Therefore I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. GEORGE E. DOWNEY. Mr. Speaker, I think if this district has not been changed for twenty-five years it is nearly time to change it. There are other counties that adjoin us, Berks County, York County, and a number of other counties, that are divided into legislative districts. Lancaster County is one of the thickly populated counties, and our idea in making four legislative districts is that the member would be really in his own territory to be a candidate. The gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, has said there is no demand for this legislation. I beg to disagree with him because the demand is the only reason that I put the bill into the House for its enactment. Since I have been a member of the House I have been asked a number of times to put in such a bill, and in the 1933 session I didn't do so, but the bill was prepared and sent to me without any say so on my part. I am sponsoring the bill at the request of some of the people that live in the district affected. The change of district would not affect the district that I represent at all, and I am asking the members of the House to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. KOBELAK (Concurrent) Resolution No. 161.

In the House of Representatives, May 28, 1935.

Whereas, Relief from the burden of real taxation should be accorded owners of homesteads whose value is less than $5,000; and

Whereas, His Excellancy, the Governor has appointed a committee of eminent citizens to advise with the Constitutional, if one is called; and

Whereas, It is deemed advisable to draw the attention of said committee and the members of the Constitutional Convention Committee to the just demands of owners of small homes for relief of a portion of the burdensome taxation they are now suffering; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Constitutional Convention Committee appointed by the Governor and the members of the Constitutional Convention, if a convention be called, be earnestly requested to investigate the feasibility and advisability of incorporating into any new Constitution provisions designed to bring relief to owners of small homesteads.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Chairman of the Constitutional Convention Committee appointed by the Governor, and another copy to the Constitutional Convention if called, by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

SENATE BILL No. 712

An Act to amend section thirteen of the act approved the eleventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 485), entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the ctizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination, licensure, and registration of persons, and registration of corporations, engaging in the care, preparation, and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons; and providing penalties," by prohibiting the issuance of corporate licenses to the registration of and the conducting of business by corporations not previously licensed registered and in active operation

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the vote had on final passage and third reading reconsidered in the Senate and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 10, by striking out after the word "of" the word "corporate"; also in line 13, by striking out after the word "registered" the words "and in active operation".

Amend Section 1, page 2, line 21, by inserting after the word "corporation" the words "nor shall any corporation be permitted to conduct the business or profession of undertaking"; also in line 22, by inserting after the word "license" the word "and"; also in line 22 by striking out after the word "registered" the words "and inactive operation and no corporation shall be permitted to conduct the business or profession of undertaking which has not already been so licensed and registered and in active operation."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2835, entitled:

An Act increasing the number of courts of common pleas in the county of Philadelphia establishing therein a distinct and separate court of common pleas designated court of common pleas number six and providing for the election and appointment of judges for said court

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2145, entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred three) entitled "An act relating to the form execution revocation and interpretation of wills to nuncupative wills to the appointment of testamentary guardians to spendthrift trusts to forfeiure of devise or legacy in case of murder of testator to elections to take under or against wills and to the recording and registering of such elections and of decrees relative thereto and to the fees therefor"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of the bill explain to the House what the amendment proposes doing to the testate laws of Pennsylvania?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, the bill is very simple. It simply withdraws the two attesting witnesses in a will. That is all that the bill does.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the passage of this act and I point out to the members of the House that the testate laws, the decedent laws of Pennsylvania are held as models in the entire United States, and as a matter of fact many of the laws of the various states of this union are copied after the laws of Pennsylvania. At the present time in Pennsylvania in charity bequests it is necessary that at least thirty days intervene between the signing of the will and the death of the testator. In addition thereto, it is necessary that such will be witnessed by two witnesses. This act would remove that particular provision. I point out to the members of the House that perhaps charitable bequests are more fruitful of litigation than other particular type of bequest in a will. With the retention of two witnesses you have the assurance that at least the thirty days provision is complied with; you have the additional assurance that the particular testamentary capacity of the teastor at the time of making his will is such that he does have and possess sufficient capacity to make a will. I say that with the removal of the two witnesses from a will containing a charitable bequest, you are going to again throw into the courts much litigation. You will find your Orphan's Courts once again clogged with that type of litigation which was an abhorrence to all of the people of the Commonwealth and which gave rise to the necessity of including in wills not only the thirty day provision but the necessity of placing two attesting witnesses on such wills.

I am therefore asking the members of this House to vote "no" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2784 (Senate Bill No. 144), entitled:

An Act prescribing the method of making applications for unemployment poor or other relief for the needy making misrepresentations and misstatements in connection therewith the unlawful approval and granting of relief conspiracy to obtain relief and the sale of relief orders and articles received as relief misdemeanors and prescribing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose the passage of this bill. Some two three weeks ago we passed a measure putting teeth into the law and providing sufficient penalties for anyone who obtained relief by misrepresentation. This bill goes much further and says that any person who makes any misrepresentation or misstatement, no matter how small or trivial in any such application for the purpose of obtaining relief, is, guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars, and undergo imprisonment for a term of not less than three months.

This is a type of legislation that I have always opposed on any matter when it came before this House. It is a measure which fixes a minimum sentence and mandatorily requires it to be imposed. It takes away from courts all discretion in the matter. I realize that there is a great deal of feeling on this subject, but to put a law upon the books, which makes it mandatory to sentence a man to three months imprisonment or one hundred dollars fine, I think, is very bad legislation, regardless of what the subject may be. It is much better to leave the law in the form in which it is upon the passage of the Law bill which we put through here some two or three weeks ago, which provides an ample penalty and does not take away from the courts their discretion.

In section two it provides that "it shall be unlawful for any district or county relief board or other agency" to approve the application of any person for relief. It does not say "public relief" an any form, but for any relief in any form whatever, or "to conspire with another person" to secure relief in any form. It then goes on to make a mandatory sentence there also. I think it is very bad legislation, that it is not necessary in order to cure any evil which had been shown to exist, and in that connection, in view of the great deal of publicity which has been given concerning the alleged chiseling of relief in the State, it may be of interest to the members of the House to know that the investigating committee which is investigating relief in Berks County received testimoney on that question a week or so ago, and the director of relief in that county testified that the chiselers did not number more than one quarter of one per cent of the persons upon relief, which is a very infinitesimal amount.

To pass drastic legislation of this kind which will possibly hit a lot of people who unintentionally do something, because, after all, you might be convicted of doing it intentionally when you did not intend to do it at all, and under a broad bill such as we have here, making it mandatory to impose one hundred dollars fine, which in the case of an unemployed person, who could not pay, amounts to the same thing as a jail sentence, and if it is a jail sentence, it must be at least three months.

I ask you to vote against this measure as being absolutely unnecessary and being very bad legislation in any event.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the Assembly, this bill is sponsored by a Senator from my county and in order to clarify the issue I would like to state to the members of the House that the Law bill which was passed by this House and which endorsed the principle of punishment in case of chiseling on relief, and in which case this House went upon record that something should be done in the matter, I am informed that the amendments which this House saw fit to make to that bill are not agreeable to the sponsor of that measure. Therefore, I ask in view of the fact that this House has already gone on record in favor of a bill of similar character, that in justice to the sponsor and to the House itself, and in order to obtain some legislation of this character, to curb these practices, I ask that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar, so that the Senator may have an opportunity to consult and amend this bill so that it may conform to the views of the House, and perhaps be of some use in curbing these abuses.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 607 (Senate Bill No. 105), entitled:

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of the sponsor I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2655, entitled:

An Act providing for the creation of public "Authorities" in boroughs; authorizing such "Authorities" to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States, particularly as they relate to the National Industrial Recovery Act and any amendment and supplements thereto, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and political subdivisions and municipalities thereof, and with others; defining and providing for the organization and dissolution of such "Authorities"; conferring certain rights, powers, duties and immunities upon them and their officers and members; prescribing the conditions upon which such "Authorities" may exercise their powers; endowing such "Authorities" with the right of eminent domain, and with the power to finance projects by the issuance and sale of bonds; authorizing such "Authorities" to make and receive appropriations; repealing certain acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and for other purposes.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2469, entitled:

An Act to authorize cities, other than those of the first class, to construct or acquire waterworks, subways, underground railways or street railways and the appurtenances thereof, and to finance the construction or acquisition thereof by the issuance and sale of bonds payable from the revenue thereof, secured solely by liens upon the respective properties and imposing no municipal liability; providing the method of authorizing the issuance of such bonds and of determining the form and terms thereof, and the nature and extent of such lien; providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof; and repealing acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KANE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like the gentleman from McKean to state the purpose of placing this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I would say that this bill embodies many of the same principles as the last bill of Mr. Caputo, which was placed on the postponed calendar. The preceding bill involves contracts and agreements with various agencies, set-ups in conjunction with the National Industrial Recovery Act, which has just been held unconstitutional, and most of us are not yet familiar with the provisions of the decision, so that I do not think a day's delay would hurt the bill any.

The second reason is, I would say to the gentleman from Cambria, that I intend to oppose the next bill of Mr. Aukerman, on page 25, which also embodies many of the same principles, and I think it would be a good plan if this bill could be considered after the decision on the constitutionality of the N. I. R. A. is understood, and after the question of the rural electrification authority has been disposed of.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, is one hundred percent in error so far as the connection between this bill and other is concerned. I am perfectly willing that this bill be passed over in its order in order to give the gentleman from McKean an opportunity to read it by tomorrow, and I am sure that if he does read it, he will be anxious to support it.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to examine the bill. I am very glad to admit that I am not familiar with this bill and that is one of the reasons I would like to have the bill go over in its order, for the purpose of examining it. After reading the bill it is quite possible I will support it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the bill be passed over in its order.

The SPEAKER. The bill will be passed over in its order.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2410, entitled:

An Act to carry into effect section one of article fifteen of the Constitution giving cities the right and power to frame adopt and amend their own charters and to exercise the powers and authority of local self-government and providing the procedure therefor imposing certain restrictions limitations and regulations imposing duties upon city county officers, county commissioners and prothonotaries and providing for the payment of certain expenses by cities

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1369, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand twenty-five of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds;" as amended, increasing the penalty for failure to stop and render assistance under certain circumstance.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Section 1025, paragraph B, page 4, line 14, by striking out the word "six" and the figure "6" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "four (4)" and at the end of line 15, same section, insert the following: "at the discretion of the court"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time?

Is there objection?

The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2413, entitled:

An Act creating the Pennsylvania Rural Electrification Authority for the purpose of promoting and encouraging the fullest possible use of electric energy in the Commonwealth by making electric energy available to certain inhabitants of the Commonwealth at the lowest cost consistent with sound economy and prudent management; authorizing the authority to sell and distribute electric energy and to construct or otherwise acquire a system or systems for the generation, transmission and distribution of electric energy to carry out the purposes of this act; providing for the rights, powers, and duties of the auhority; authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by the authority; and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof.

On the question,

NAYS—1

Schrock,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2648 as follows:

An Act prohibiting electric light companies from discriminating in minimum charges or base rates between houses apartments or buildings because of difference in number of rooms served

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That no electric light company shall charge a minimum charge or a base rate on the basis of the number of rooms in any house apartment or building served but the minimum charge or base rate shall in all cases be the same as that now charged in the case of the least number of rooms used as the basis for a minimum charge or a base rate

Section 2 The Public Service Commission shall enforce the provisions of this act in the manner provided in the act approved the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred seventy-four) known as "The Public Service Company Law"

Section 3 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent here with are hereby repealed

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective January first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, why should not the utility company be allowed to charge a larger rate for a greater installation to furnish power to a greater installation?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please repeat that question? I did not hear the latter part of it.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, why should not the power company be allowed to charge a greater rate for a larger installation?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman go into more detail in explanation of just the meaning of larger installation?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, now, as I understand this bill, the minimum charge would be the same for installation of half a dozen lights, it would be the same as for a thousand,—the minimum charge of the power company.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this act, if I may be permitted to explain them, will probably answer the question of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, in detail. Years ago, when power companies first started to operate, they did not have meters. They used to charge so much per room. Then later on, when meters came into use, some power companies instead of establishing a rate schedule based upon kilowatt consumption through that meter, established it on the basis of the number of rooms in the particular installation.

To give you an example: In some cases where a six room house was metered, they would require you to use five kilowatts per room, or a total of thirty kilowatts, at the highest rate before they would give you the next lowest rate. In another house, scheduled as nine rooms, you would be required to use forty-five kilowatts of current before you would get the next lowest rate. Where that was in practice, they would have a minimum of six rooms and a maximum of twelve rooms. The practice of even doing it is passing out in the power companies very rapidly, and the provisions of ths act would make it mandatory that all power companies have it worked out of their schedule by January first, nineteen thirty-seven, so that they would charge the same amount to a house that used a given number of kilowatt hours per month, regardless of the size of that home.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, that is all the questions I desire to ask. It seems to me that this bill is unfair to the power companies. Now I know,—I don't want to have this House consider me as being owned by utilities or anything of that sort but I believe that we are all in favor of fair legislation. Now, the minimum charge is based on the cost of the equipment necessary to furnish service to the consumer. In some cases it has run to thousands of dollars, and I cannot realize for my part why it is fair to the utilities to have to furnish a large installation with the minimum cost, which would be the same as for a small consumer who might only use only two or three kilowatt hours. I think I am speaking in the public interest because if the utilities are not permitted to make a larger minimum charge for a large installation, the small consumer will find that his minimum charge is increasing to take care of the larger installation. I thank you.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, where he thinks that by the passage of this act that ultimately the small consumer's rate will be raised, you will note that the basis now to be esablished is on the amount charged for the minimum number of rooms used by that power company. For instance, if they now have a minimum of six and five kilowatts per room, their base rate will start from thirty for all units. So, it will not affect the small user.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2253, as follows:

An Act requiring the Commonwealth political subdivisions persons firms and corporations to stipulate in specifications upon which contracts for the construction alteration or repairs of any work or improvement are entered into the minimum wages to be paid to laborers and mechanics and providing for the stipulation of penalties in such contracts where such minimum wage stipulations are violated and for the recovery of such penalties and prescribing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the specifications upon which contracts are entered into by the Commonwealth any county city borough town township school district poor district person firm or corporation for the construction alteration or repairs of any work or improvement involving an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars shall contain the minimum wage or wages which may be paid by the contractor or his subcontractors for the work performed by laborers and mechanics employed on such work or improvement and such laborers and mechanics shall be paid not less than such minimum wage or wages

Section 2 Every contract for the construction alteration or repair of any such work or improvement founded on specification containing any such stipulation for minimum wage or wages shall stipulate a penalty of an account equal to twice the difference between the minimum wage contained in said specifications and the wage actually paid to each laborer or mechanic for each day during which he has been employed at a wage less than that prescribed in said specifications The contractor shall keep posted in a conspicuous place at such work or improvement the rate of wage paid to laborers and mechanics

Section 3 Every officer or person designated as an inspector architect or engineer having supervision over the work to be performed under any such contract and every agent of the Department of Labor and Industry in order to aid in enforcing the fulfillment thereof shall upon observation or investigation report to the authorities of the Commonwealth the political subdivision or agency thereof or to the person firm or corporation which let the contract and to the Department of Labor and Industry all violations of minimum wage stipulations together with the name of each laborer or mechanic who has been paid a wage less than that prescribed by the specifications and the day or days of such violation

Section 4 All such penalties imposed by the stipulations in the contract shall be withheld and deducted from any moneys due the contractor by the officer or person whose duty it shall be to pay or authorize the payment of moneys due such contractor whether the violation of the minimum wage stipulation of the specifications was by the contractor or by any of his subcontractors and shall be paid over to the laborer or mechanic entitled thereto

Section 5 Any officer person firm corporation contractor subcontractor inspector architect or engineer who shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act or any part thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or suffer imprisonment for a term of not more than one year or both in the discretion of the court

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2629, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand one hundred and one of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety: regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue; the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," as amended empowering the Secretary of Highways to direct the direction in which traffic shall proceed upon highways.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1935 No. 69

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, May 29, 1935

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Help us, O God, to make the approaching Memorial Day in deed and in fact an occasion of true and solemn memories. May this day mean to us not merely feasting, athletic activity and perhaps gayety. May we approach its observance, led and inspired by the deeds of bravery and self-sacrifice performed by the men who sleep in soldiers' graves throughout our Commonwealth, our nation and across the sea.

Some of these soldiers fought to attain American independence; some for preservation of territory against red men and their allies; some cemented with their blood a rift in our federal unity; some battled to lift the yoke of oppression from the necks of men long benighted; and some to make the world safe for democracy.

Today we would consecrate our lives to the making of democracy safe for the world. May war never again prevail within our borders. By sane and God-guided legislation may all differences dividing us from each other and from the nations of the world be amicably adjusted.

May the Stars and Stripes peacefully wave over our territory until the end of the age, so that our dead heroes may not have fought in vain, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The President. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceeding session, when, on motion of Mr. HOWELL, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, JUNE 3, 1935 No. 70

SENATE

MONDAY, June 3, 1935.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock, P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, in view of life's uncertainty, grant unto us grace to live each day as though it were our last day of human existence. May we strive to finish each task, discharge each duty and fulfill each obligation as completely as our strength and opportunity may permit.

Bestow upon us wisdom to judge, strength to perform and faith to go forward unfalteringly. May our actions not be too hasty nor yet too deliberate. Show us what is best for ourselves and for those whose interests touch and perhaps conflict with our own. Then assist us as we endeavor to do the thing which may best conserve the common good.

May we not forget the power of words to comfort or to wound those to whom or of whom we speak. So may we set a guard about our lips and a rein upon our tongues.

Ever faithful in our allegiances and true to the trusts reposed in us, may we daily grow in power to serve our age and hasten the coming of Thy kingdom.

In closing this short period of devotion we would ask Thy blessing to rest upon that member of this body upon whom the hand of bereavement has fallen. Comfort him and his family by Thy spirit in the name of Thy Son. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SONES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

COMMUNICATION FROM HONORABLE WALTER S. PYTKO

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication:

May 31, 1935.

Senate of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Pa.

My Esteemed Colleagues:

It is with a feeling of deep appreciation that I acknowledge receipt of the Resolution adopted by you on May twentieth, wherein sympathy on the death of my father is so kindly expressed.

My gratitude is rendered more enduring by the thought that you have seen fit to pause in the pressure of legislative duties to commiserate with me in my grief.

Gratefully yours,

WALTER S. PYTKO.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 817, AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House insists upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 817, entitled:

An Act to provide for the nomination of candidates for public office by political parties as herein defined, providing penalties, and abolishing existing primary elections.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mercer, Mr. LAW, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I have on my desk—and I presume the other members have on their desks tonight—a letter to the President of the Keystone Automobile Club from the President of the Sun Oil Company, in which the writer purports to explain the recent rise in the price of gasoline. I know, in that connection, that there have been efforts in line with this attempt to separate the increase in the price of gasoline from the question of taxation. The letter reads as follows:

SUN OIL COMPANY
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

June 3, 1935.

Mr. J. Borton Weeks, President,
The Keystone Automobile Club,
Broad & Vine Sts.,
Philadelphia, Penna.

Mr Dear Mr. Weeks:

I have your letter of May 27th, inquiring about the recent increase of 1 cent in the price of gasoline. You refer to the fact that motorists, automobile clubs and dealers, and the farm organizations had united with the the oil companies in opposing an increased gasoline tax, and observe that "we now have the very definite feeling of having been let down as the result of this recent 1 cent increase in price."

At the outset I want to express my appreciation of this close cooperation that has been maintained between these groups. The gasoline tax has become so easy a means of raising revenue that the producers and users of gasoline has need to maintain an unrelenting opposition to increases; otherwise it is hard to conjecture how high this tax may ultimately be pushed. Because it is so important to maintain this united front of opposition, I should keenly regret any misunderstanding that could jeopardize it.

The recent price increase had no relationship whatever to the legislative situation in Harrisburg. Costs of producing and marketing our products have risen sharply in the last two years because of NRA. Crude oil at times had sold as low as 10 cents per barrel; its price is now based on $1 per barrel. Other costs have increased all the way from oil field to filling station, and the higher price was necessary to put an end to actual losses which had continued for a long time. Yet the increase only brought the price of gasoline up to 13 cents in Philadelphia, ex-tax; and that is exactly the same price we got for gasoline in Philadelphia this day a year ago.

Gasoline demand touches its low in winter and high in summer. So gasoline which is made in winter in excess of the seasonal demand must be stored and carried until warm weather; and this is expensive. Normally, the industry loses in winter and must make up the loss in the season of largest demand. This was the case during the past winter, and the recent price advance was exactly in line with long established practice, dictated by economic conditions.

Everybody has recognized in the last year a general rise in prices. I have before me price statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor on this point. Let me quote some illustrations. The price of sirloin steak in Philadelphia averaged 34 cents per pound for 1933; but on February 12th, last, it was 50.2 cents.

Pork chops in Philadelphia averaged 21.5 cents for 1933; but on February 12, 1935, they were 32.7 cents.

Tea averaged, for the whole country, in 1933, 65.6 cents per pound; but on February 12, 1935, it averaged 72.9 cents.

White bread in Philadelphia averaged 7 cents per pound for 1933; but on February 12, 1935, it was 8.8 cents.

Over the entire country, for 1933, eggs averaged 26.1 cents per dozen; but on February 12, 1935, they averaged 38.5.

Sliced bacon averaged, for 1933, 22.3 cents per pound; but on February 12, 1935, it was 36.5 cents.

Wheat flour averaged 3.9 cents per pound for 1933; but on February 12, 1935, it had gone up to 5 cents per pound.

The statistics make similar showing for practically all foods, and it is universal knowledge that practically all commodities have risen in like manner.

That users of gasoline have no occasion for complaint is shown by the continual price decrease over a long period. In 1919, when there were no gasoline taxes except in Oregon, the average filling station price of gasoline, ex-tax, for the country, was 25.41 cents per gallon. By 1926 it had dropped to 20.9 cents; and for 1934 it was only 13.10.

I have said that the recent price increase was a normal, seasonal adjustment. In order that you may be assured that it did not represent an imposition on the people of Pennsylvania, I may repeat that such advances are the rule, at this season, all over the country.

Thus in Cleveland on January 1, 1935, the price at the filling station, ex-tax, was 12.5 cents; on April 25 it was raised to 13.5 cents; and on May 29, to 14 cents.

At Wilmington, Del., the price January 1, last, was 12.5 cents; on May 18 it was raised to 13.5 cents.

At Wheeling, W. Va., on January 1, 1935, the price was 12.5 cents; on May 15, it was raised to 13.25 cents.

At Baltimore the price January 1, was 12.5 cents; on April 8 it dropped to 12.3; and on May 10 was raised to 12.6.

At Harrisburg the price January 1 was 12.5; on May 18 it was raised to 13.5.

At Philadelphia the price last January 1 was 12 cents; on May 18 it was raised to 13 cents.

At Detroit the price last January 1 was 13 cents; on May 2 it became 14.7 cents.

At Richmond, Va., the price last January 1 was 13 cents; on May 10 it was raised to 13.3 cents.

At Orlando, Fla., the price last January 1 was 13 cents; on January 25 it was raised to 13.5 cents.

I hope this analysis will convince you that the recent price advance in Pennsylvania was only a normal and necessary adjustment. Most industries advertise only when they have reduced prices—and so have no explanations to make. The oil industry alone has to announce increases—and sometimes to explain them. In the present instance I am particularly glad of the opportunity you have afforded me to make this explanation to the great body of motorists whom you represent. I hope it will clear away any possible misapprehension that may have lodged in their minds.

Most sincerely yours,

(Signed) J. HOWARD PEW,
President

However, there is one feature they have left out,—they have failed to tell the whole story. I was informed last week, when I was home, by the oil producers in the territory, that at the same time this increase was made in the price of gasoline the price of crude oil was reduced 10c a barrel. I would like to have the statement of that fact, together with a copy of this letter, placed upon the record.

The PRESIDENT. The statement will be entered in the record.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. NORTON read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1513, entitled:

L. 159), entitled "An act prohibiting the buying, having, or receiving of stolen property, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and providing for the punishment thereof," by extending said act to cases where the defendant has reasonable cause to know such property was stolen or feloniously taken.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. ROBERTS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1519 entitled:

An Act to amend sections one of the act approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 268), entitled "An act to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of minors: By forbidding their employment or work in certain establishments and occupations, and under certain specified ages; by restricting their hours of labor, and regulating certain conditions of their employment; by requiring employment certificates for certain minors, and prescribing the kinds thereof, and the rules for the issuance, reissuance, filing return, and recording of the same; by providing that the Industrial Board shall under certain conditions, determine and declare whether certain occupations are within the prohibitions of this act; requiring that certain minors shall, during the period of their employment, attend certain schools, to be established as therein provided, and to be approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and regulating the conditions of such attendance; authorizing the State Board of Education, in certain cases, to appoint attendance officers to aid in enforcing the provisions of this act, and creating the salary and expenses of such officers a charge against the school district wherein they are employed; requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, the attendance officers of school districts, and police officers; and defining the procedure in prosecutions thereunder, and establishing certain presumptions in relation thereto; providing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith", by exempting from the provisions of the act children employed in occasional radio or other entertainment activities.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Mr. PYTKO read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1520 entitled:

An Act authorizing savings banks to establish life insurance departments, providing procedure and prerequisites.

Which was committed to the Committee on Banking.

RESOLUTION EXPRESSING SYMPATHY TO HONORABLE CHARLES H. EALY

Mr. REED (Dauphin) offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 3, 1935.

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has visited the home and family of our colleague, Senator Charles H Ealy, by calling to eternity his beloved and honored Mother,

Now therefore be it resolved, by the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in session duly assembled that the sympathy of the members of the Senate be extended to our distinguished colleague, Senator Ealy, in his hour of sorrow and bereavement,

And be it further resolved, that this resolution be entered upon the Journal of the Senate and that a copy thereof be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to our friend and colleague, Senator Ealy.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. BENNETT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 3, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, June 10, 1935, at 9 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time and that when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvens Monday evening, June 10, 1935, at 9 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES MADE BY VARIOUS NEWSPAPERS

MR. BATCHELOR offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, June 3, 1935.

Whereas, There was introduced into the General Assembly a bill, commonly known as the Pittsburgh Ripper Bill, that if enacted into law will abolish the office of Mayor in the City of Pittsburgh, and Whereas, The real purpose of this bill seems to be to remove the Hon. William McNair from the office of Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh by legislative authority, notwithstanding that he could be removed by appropriate legal proceedings if found guilty of malfeasance in office, or that he had been elected to the office of Mayor at the preceding election by a large majority of the votes cast, or that a newspaper poll taken after the introduction into the General Assembly of the above-mentioned bill indicated that a large majority of the voters were still desirous of having him as their chief executive, and

Whereas, The real objection to having the said William McNair serve as Mayor for the full term to which he had been elected, seems to be that his independence in the administration of his official duties, especially his dispensing of political patronage is not satisfactory to the Democratic organization of that city, and

Whereas, Various newspapers circulating in Pennsylvania have published news items and have given considerable editorial space to the above-mentioned bill, generally agreeing, that all the Democratic Senators will support the bill and inferring if not actually alleging, that in order to secure the votes of seven Republican Senators necessary to have the bill pass, that parties having at their disposal, political patronage, were offering Republican Senators, jobs or positions for their friends or constituents, in return for votes to have the said bill reported out of committee and for final passage in the Senate, and

Whereas, This seems to be a serious reflection on the honesty and integrity of members of the Senate, therefore be it,

Resolved, That the President pro Tempore of the Senate appoint a committee consisting of three Senators, to investigate the charges made by various newspapers as to the methods used to secure the passage of said bill and of all lobbying done in the interest of this bill or of any offer made to any member of the General Assembly for his or her support in favor of said bill and to all other matters in connection therewith. The said committee to make a report of its findings to the Senate for such action as may seem desirable, and be it further,

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary.

Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of the Commonwealth. Each members of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesess appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I object.

The Chair hears objection. The Resolution will be referred to the Committee on Municipal Government.

RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING FEDERAL WORKS ADMINISTRATION TO PROCURE ALLOCATION OF FEDERAL PUBLIC WORKS EMERGENCY FUNDS

Mr. RANKIN offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 3, 1935.

Whereas, For a period of 25 years studies and surveys have been made by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and Engineers of the Flood Commission of Pittsburgh for a system of flood control reservoirs in the headwaters of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, the expense of which surveys were met by moneys appropriated by the Congress of the United States, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the County of Allegheny, the City of Pittsburgh, and by the contributions of taxpayers both private individuals and industries; and

Whereas, Nine of the proposed reservoirs are in Pennsylvania and are part of a system of 14 reservoirs in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky studied and approved by the Mississippi Committee of the National Resources Board, by the Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., by Major W. H. Gravell, P. W. A. Engineer for Pennsylvania and by the Tri-State authority, a voluntary organization of the mayors, burgesses and presidents of municipal council in 230 municipalities in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia; and

Whereas, The first reservoir in the system is now under construction on the Tygart river in West Virginia, a tributary of the Monongahela, at a total cost of about $15,000,000, allocated entirely from Federal Public Works Emergency funds, and already giving employment directly and indirectly to about 4,000 men; and

Whereas, The construction of the remaining 13 reservoirs in the system at a total estimated cost of $70,117,000 will give employment to an estimated 60,000 men out of a total of 200,000 unemployed in the vicinity of the reservoir sites, besides consuming great quantities of construction materials such as sand, gravel, cement, steel, lumber, tools and machinery, thus furnishing employment to additional thousands; and

Whereas, The construction of these proposed reservoirs and the Muskingum Project in Ohio are estimated by the Mississippi Valley Committee of the National Resources Board in its report of Oct. 1, 1934 to reduce floods 5 to 6 feet at Pittsburgh, 4 to 6 feet at Cincinnati, 2 to 4 feet at Louisville, and ½ to 1 foot at Cairo (confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers), affording flood protection to a population of several million people and their properties, occupations and pursuits and thus constituting a project national in scope and effects; and

Whereas, In addition to furnishing protection from floods the proposed reservoirs will improve navigation in the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers in periods of low and high water, will benefit sanitary conditions of domestic water supplies to millions of population and provide possible future sources of hydro-electric energy; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate of Pennsylvania memorialize the Federal Public Works Administration, through the Administrator, Secretary Harold L. Ickes, to procure allocation of Federal Public Works Emergency funds to begin at once construction of additional reservoirs in this system, of which the following have been located in Pennsylvania by the Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., the Allegheny reservoir, the Conemaugh, the French Creek, the Tionesta Creek, the Red Bank Creek, the Mahoning Creek, the Crooked Creek, the Loyalhanna Creek reservoirs, all on or tributary to the Allegheny river, and the Shenango river reservoir, tributary to the Ohio river at an estimated total cost of $54,900,000, all to be allocated out of Federal Public Works funds for temporary relief of unemployment, and for permanent social benefit to millions of population dwelling in the watersheds of the rivers referred to.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, by the Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I object.

The Chair hears objection. The Resolution will be referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE OBSERVANCE OF JUNE 14TH AS FLAG DAY

Mr. RANKIN offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, June 3, 1935.

Whereas, June 14th is the anniversary of the adoption by the Continental Congress, June 14, 1777, of the Stars and Stripes as the emblem of the United States, and with that date began the history of our Flag as a symbol of our nationality; and

Whereas, Pennsylvania has the honor of giving birth on its soil to our National Emblem; and

Whereas, The American Flag Day Association, which for over forty (40) years has led the observation of "Flag Day" as a patriotic duty and their affiliated civic, educational, patriotic, fraternal, religious and other cooperating organizations which also annually observe Flag Day, have by their example, shown the citizens of Pennsylvania particularly and the Nation at large the influence for good which such observance may exert; and

Whereas, By such celebrations our pride in American citizenship may be emphasized, our faith in and devotion to American institutions strengthened, a stronger love of country shown, our patriotism rekindled and also to perpetuate this observance; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Governor of our Commonwealth be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to designate June 14th of each year as Flag Day by proclamation, and to request our citizens to observe Flag Day, June 14th, as the anniversary birthday of "Old Glory" and that decorations in our National colors be made, and wherever possible in every community, the American Flag be displayed and worn as a badge of honor and distinction, that in schools and colleges and universities there be special patriotic exercises and societies, clubs, and other organizations have suitable programs, and also on the Sunday nearest June 14th, in all places of worship, public recognition be made, that we then give expression to our thoughtful love of America, our determination to make it greater with each generation, by loyal service and loyal living.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, some weeks ago, I discussed from the floor of this Senate one phase of that agitating question—"Whither are we tending" and tonight it is my purpose to treat another branch of this important subject commonly and well known to us all as Unemployment Relief. It is an invariable rule of political science that the structure of every nation is built deeply in its people. It naturally follows that a people full of strength and wisdom always maketh a strong and good nation, but a people full of weakness and ignorance soon dissipate the substance of a nation and cause it to descend into the depth of degradation and decay.

It is essential then to the welfare of every nation that its people be encouraged and assisted in their desire and endeavor to rise to a high and worthy plane of citizenship, and while these observations could be applied, with interest and profit, to other nations of today, I desire to confine my remarks to mine own beloved country, the United States of America, and to my native State, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The rise and expansion of our great American Commonwealth constitute a story of the growth of a thrifty and determined people. Possessing, in most instances, the bare necessaries of life, our early fathers cultivated and developed a vigor and power of attack that melted down and overcame all opposing fear and obstruction, and reared in the west of their day, for themselves and posterity, a new and glorious nation that in time became the wonder of the world. No nation was ever conceived amid darker or gloomier surroundings. Terrifying dangers and formidable hardships encompassed it. Yet, its people, trained to hardihood and deprivation, and imbued with the Spirit to succeed, went forth into all avenues of trade and business, and their many wants were forgotten as they looked forward and beheld the vast field of opportunity that lay stretched out in beauty before them, and as a result an independent and prosperous people inhabited and ruled America.

During this period of growth and devolopment, industry and economy, coupled with honesty and truth, pervaded every household, and sovereign pride forbade the entrance of charity at the door. True, there were those who, through sickness and misfortune, needed the sustaining and helping hand of their neighbors, but assistance, in such worthy cases, was always bountifully and unselfishly furnished, and the dole was a something to them unknown. Thus, in outline we have the glowing history of the beginning and advancement of a magnificent and glorious Republic. But in the course of time the canker of greed and selfishness appeared and began to eat into the fabric of American life and government. Helpful relations between neighbors; mutual friendship and assistance between men; loyal and sincere devotion to the State; virtue in business; honor in life; these all became touched, contaminated and changed by this unholy spirit of cupidity and greed; and as a result, today, we have a brave and noble people fighting desperately to recover and bring back to American life the pure and lasting virtues of the fathers.

During this era of selfishness, men, women and children, in industry and trade, worked feverishly and intensely under the domination of a system that forgot the brotherhood of man as property rights were placed over human rights; and out of it all came the great depression with its unemployment, misery and relief, with approximately 1,680,480 persons receiving assistance in Pennsylvania today.

From a careful study of this Relief question we must conclude that our worthy and unfortunate brethren must be assisted and maintained during this season of gloom and depression. Their faith in the future of America must be kept alive; their courage and fortitude sustained; so that when the dark clouds that hover over us have passed, they shall again with renewed hope, rise up in the struggle to conquer the many new opportunities that this great country will again provide. But from this Relief situation there now arises a new and grave danger. Carefully organized plans are now being perfected for its expansion and perpetuation. Selfish groups are now forming to exploit relief. The crushing burden now borne by overloaded taxpayers receives no consideration from them. Throughout our State the farmer, the artisan, and the tradesman have struggled along with patience and courage, hoping for their day of salvation. Rising early in the morning to their toil they have labored diligently into the night to sustain life and pay taxes, while an expensive and devastating relief machine rolls steadily onward propelled by an innumerable host of highly paid officials that never knew want.

How much further can our farmers go? How much longer can our artisans pay? How much more can our tradesmen stand? How much longer will thrift remain among our people? When these sturdy and true defenders of our nation surrender and succumb the day of danger is near at hand. This nation cannot continue in its greatness with a substantial part of its people sustained by charity and the dole. The future youth of America must not be continuously emancipated into a society where initiative and ambition are dead; where the only hope for subsistence lies in charity and the dole. This powerful relief system must be destroyed. Our pure American ideals must be resurrected and preserved.

In order to accomplish these salutary results, we must immediately provide work for our people. Man, by nature, wants work and not charity. He desires independence; not servility. He loves freedom; not bondage. To lift the standard of living in America; to create work; to eliminate relief; a broad plan of social and economic legislation has been advocated and urged by our President, and taken up in turn by the Governor of our State. Embraced in this program is provision for the reduction of the hours of labor; for the elimination of children from industry; for the destruction of cut-throat competition; for improved working conditions; for better wages; for fair trade practices. More than a year ago the President of the United States started this program on its way, with amazing and unexpected benefits to the people of our land. Industry and business were revived; labor was organized and rebuilt; and better relations were established between Capital and Labor. But this national program, in its development and advancement, has been halted by the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, and today confusion and doubt darken the sky which but yesterday shone with brilliance and promise. Our people will recover; they will rise again and support the President in his good work, and as the Dred Scott decision of the past fired the people onward with renewed vigor, so this recent decision will crystallize public sentiment into a new determination to find proper and constitutional ways to put these rejected progressive principles again into action.

By reason of this Federal decision, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, should move rapidly to accomplish its part of this progressive and constructive program, and with this in mind, I voted last week against the resolution to adjourn on June 21st. However, with but a few weeks of this session remaining, let us labor diligently to complete our program, so that our people will be encouraged and inspired by our conduct, and voluntarily and patriotically join with their fellow countrymen in reviving and rebuilding a progressive and unselfish economic and social order that will bring back prosperity to our land, and root out and destroy that un-American system of unemployment relief and the dole.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows: Amend title, page 2, last line of title by adding after the word "cases" the following: "and imposing duties upon clerks of the courts"; also Section 1, page 4, by adding after line 10 the following: "The Clerk of the courts shall when such fine and costs have been so paid in any such case certify such fact to the Department of Revenue".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President and members of the Senate, this bill is in the same form in which it was when it passed the Senate, some weeks ago, with the exception that the House added this provision, "The clerk of the courts shall, when such fine and costs have been so paid in any such case, certify such fact to the Department of Revenue." I think that is a good amendment, and I am satisfied with that amendment to the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would call the attention of the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed to page 4 of the bill, and ask whether he understands that this bill correctly carries out the intention of the sponsor—"The secretary shall forthwith revoke for a period of one (1) year from date of revocation, and until the fine and costs imposed shall have been fully paid, the operating privilege of any (such) person * * * "—whether he understands how long that operator's license can be revoked if it be revoked for one year from the date of revocation.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, the license is revoked, under the original Act, for one year, and then indefinitely if the fine and costs are not paid.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it seems to me this bill should go back for amendment, because the Act provides for the revocation of the license for one year "from date of revocation" and it should be from a given date. It saye "for a period of one (1) year from date of revocation", and, to my mind, means nothing.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 646 (House Bill No. 666) on third reading, entitled:

An Act appropriating the moneys in the State Forests and Waters Fund be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill gives to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the right to make contracts with the head of any Federal department or agency without providing that it shall be with the head of a department authorized to make such a contract. While I am in perfect accord with the purpose of the bill, I do not think that this bill in its present form, should be passed.

It also gives to the Secretary of the Commonwealth the right to make contracts and determine the proportion of the profits earned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylto be given to the Federal Government; and I think that should be studied.

I therefore move that this bill be referred back to the Committee on Appropriations for the purpose of making appropriate amendments, as well as for the purpose of determining whether or not the Secretary of the Commonwealth should have the right to make an agreement to give the profits back to any other body of this government.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twenty-six Senators voted in the affirmative and eighteen in the negative; therefore, the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 718, entitled:

An Act to carry into operation the provisions of Article XV, Section four of the Constitution of Pennsylvania by providing for a consolidated city and county in and of the county of Allegheny to be known as the City of Metropolitan Pittsburgh, and providing a charter for the government thereof; providing for the exercise by the consolidated city of all the powers and duties vested in the county of Allegheny and the poor districts thereof and other powers and duties as provided herein; reserving substantial powers to the cities, boroughs and townships situated in the county of Allegheny; providing for the transfer to the consolidated city of the property and indebtedness of the county of Allegheny and the poor districts thereof, and of such property and indebtedness of the cities, boroughs and townships thereof as relate to the powers and duties of the consolidated city; providing for an equitable adjustment and payment of such indebtedness and the issue and sale of bonds by the consolidated city in connection therewith; providing for the appointment or election as provided herein the officers of the consolidated city, including a public administrator, and abolish certain officers of the county of Allegheny; vesting in the consolidated city the exclusive power to assess property officers professions and persons for taxation by the consolidated city and the cities, boroughs and townships thereof; providing for a municipal court and abolishing the offices of magistrates, aldermen, constables and justices of the peace; providing for a special election for the submission of said charter to the electors of the county of Allegheny, and for the resubmission thereof; providing a schedule to carry the charter into operation, and repealing inconsistent laws.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend Section 222, page 22, line 3, by inserting after the word "duty" the following: "Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal sections three hundred eleven to three hundred twenty-six inclusive of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred and seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' nor any of the amendments to said sections."

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 971 (House Bill No. 67), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the nineteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (P. L. 130) entitled "An act to provide civil rights for all people regardless of race or color" amplifying and extending the provisions of said act and increasing the penalties for violation thereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think if the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, knew what the amendments consist of he would not object.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. The amendments will be read for the information of the Senate.

The amendments were read as follows:

Amend section 1, page 4, line 20, by striking out with heavy faced brackets the words "nor more than five hundred dollars or", and insert in lieu thereof "and in default of the payment of said fine and costs"; also amend section 1, page 4, line 21, by striking out with heavy faced brackets the word "less", and insert in lieu thereof the word "more"; also amend section 1, page 4, lines 22 and 23, by striking out with heavy faced brackets all of said lines.

The PRESIDENT. Is there an objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is it not true that the effect of the amendment offered by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, would be to change the fine, which now, according to the bill, is not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, to not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, exactly.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is it not true that that will put the bill in exactly the same position as the bill was in before being amended as we propose now, which makes the fine not more than five hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I should not say so.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is not that the effect of it?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, so far as the primitive is concerned this is an entirely new bill. It is a very stringent bill, and it seems to me that no penalty of this character, of this kind, should be placed in this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is a bill which puts the Senate in the position of saying they meant what they said when the original law was passed or they used language for the purpose of confusing an issue. The original law, as it stands on our statute books, reads:

The purposes at this time are two-fold: one, to amplify what it meant by places of amusement and other places, used in general terms; and that is all this bill does; and in order to increase the fine to from one hundred dollars to five hundred dollars, and at the same time to give jurisdiction to the judge who tries the case to imupose sentence if it is necessary. In other words, it puts teeth into this bill and gives notice to them that what the Legislature said in the original act was intended to mean something and that people should not be discriminated against because of race or color. Under these circumstances, I see no point in this amendment, it merely puts us back in the same position in which we were; and that is the reason I oppose the unanimous consent to amend.

The PRESIDENT. If the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, presses his objection, the Chair will have to rule that the discussion is out of order.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 971 (House Bill No. 67), passed second reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO DEFER FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of bills on third reading be deferred until tomorrow, and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of bills on second reading.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I object to the motion of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. A consideration of the number of bills on this third reading calendar should convince everybody in this Senate that there is a great deal of work to be done here. We have heard about getting done, getting done. We have a big second reading calendar, and I think we should at least, for some time further in the morning, take up these bills on third reading calendar; otherwise tomorrow we will have a third reading calendar twice or three times as long as the one we have now, and Wednesday we will have practically the same condition. If there is an honest effort being made to adjourn sometime this month, I think that we as Senators had better continue with the consideration of bills on the third reading calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call on that motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, the request of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is not in order; the request for a roll call should have been put before the motion was put.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, is well taken.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1086 (House Bill No. 2050), entitled:

An Act to amend the act entitled "An act to amend the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty) entitled "An act permitting counties of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to appropriate and expend moneys and to incur indebtedness and issue bonds and other obligations for the improvement and maintenance of State highways and State-aid highways or any public highway in any county of the Commonwealth and providing the method for applying for said moneys and for the approval thereof by the State Highway Department in certain cases" as amended extending the provisions of said act to highways in cities" as amended.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1439 (House Bill No. 2249), entitled:

An Act to further amend section seven of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred fifty-five (Pamphlet Laws three hundred twenty-eight) entitled "An act relating to Corporations and to Estates held for Corporate Religious and Charitable uses" by changing the method of holding the title to and controlling real and personal property heretofore or hereafter bequeathed devised or conveyed for the use of any church congregation or religious society and conferring jurisdiction upon courts of equity to enforce the provisions hereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. GELDER and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Batchelor,	Graff,	Norton,	Reed,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Owlett,	(Dauphin)

REQUEST THAT THE BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, in view of the fact that the Senate has decided to proceed to vote down this bill, I simply wish to explain that it contains provisions that are not clear to me. Just what the effect of this bill would be on the Protestant denominations seems to me very much in doubt. I dislike to vote 'no' because it may be a good bill, but I do not understand it, and since we have been refused the opportunity to study the bill, for that reason alone I intend to vote 'no.'

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I want to say to the members of the Senate that if they understood the bill, they would not object to it. If Senator Reed would like the bill to go over in order to give him an opportunity to study it, I can see no objections, but the object of the bill is simply this: The Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania has been overloaded with contests of the various congregations where they have established trusteeships, and it is a rule of the Catholic church that any church property belongs in trust to the Bishop of the Diocese where it is located, and these trustees they have are in the habit of taking the property over and doing as they please with it and not meeting the obligations; and the Bishop desired to bring it under a uniform standard as we do in Philadelphia and other big cities and keep it out of the Supreme Court. It does not affect any other town. It is a matter of the trusteeship with the Bishop of the Diocese being the trustee, the same as any other denomination in which the Bishop may be the trustee of the property of the church which he represents. It will in no way affect any other denomination outside of the Catholic church, and it is for the purpose of doing away with years and years of battling in the Supreme Court.

I might say that in all the cases brought into the Supreme Court the Bishops have always won the cases and it has gone over to the church proper, and there is no attempt on anyone's part to bring anything that would interfere with any other denomination, and I would ask you to pass the bill because it is only a fair bill to straighten out a very unfavorable condition.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ITS ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in view of the very fair statement of the Senator from Philadelphia, in which he said he is willing to afford us an opportunity to study this bill; and not knowing just the effect of it; I again ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1439 (House Bill No. 2249), on third reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The question was put by the Chair.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President. I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the motion has been voted on already, and it is too late to ask for a roll call.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair did not announce the vote.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I think the proper request would be for a division.

The PRESIDENT. If the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will give the Chair time to do so, he will ask for a division.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, on a matter that seems to be as serious as this—to some of our friends, I think the proper procedure would be to put the bill over in order. Objection was made to that request originally, without any prejudice whatever to the bill; I would like to suggest that the gentleman who objected, and who caused the motion to recommit the bill, withdraw his objection and allow us to put it over in its order, so it can come up for a vote tomorrow.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, the reason I requested that this bill go over in its order is that Senator Woodward was sick and left early, and asked me to have it go over.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I would like to know whether the motion is to recommit or to have the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understood that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer, was willing to have the bill go over in its order. Objection was made. Then the motion was made to recommit, and that motion has not yet been decided.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I will withdraw my objections.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in order to give everybody an opportunity to study the bill I would respectfully request the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, to withdraw his motion to recommit the bill, and then let it go over in its order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would be very happy to do that.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Miller, withdraws his objection to the bill going over in its order; the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, withdraws his motion to recommit the bill, with the consent of the seconder of his motion; and the bill will go over in its order.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1446 (House Bill No. 2488) entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws six hundred twenty-four (entitled "An act relating to the business of banking and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers and of banking corporations with or without fiduciary powers including the conversion of National banks into State banks and for the licensing of private bankers defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such corporations of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business with or without fiduciary powers of private bankers and of the officers directors trustees

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 6, line 23 by striking out after the word "trust" and before the word "or" the following "company"; also amend section 1, page 6, line 23 by inserting after the word "trust" and before the word "or" the word "company"; amend section 1, page 7, line 24 by striking out after the word "hundred" and before the word "33" the word "and" also amend section 1, page 7, line 24 by striking out after the word "hundred" and before the word "thirty-five the word "and"; also amend section 1, page 9, line 17 by striking out after the word "one" and before the word "nine" the following "thousand"; amend section 1, page 9, line 17 by inserting after the word "one" and before the word "nine" the word thousand also amend section 1, page 9, line 17 by striking out after the word "thirty-six" and before the word "sixty" the following "wtihin"; also amend section 1, page 9, line 17 by inserting after the word "thirty-six" and before the word "sixty" the word "Within"; also amend section 1, page 12, line 20 by striking out after the word "this" and before the bracket the word "article"; also amend section 1, page 12, line 20 by inserting after the word "this" and before the bracket the word "act"

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President. I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, explain the purpose of the amendment he offered?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, there are some parts of this bill that are not quite clear, and the amendment will take care of them.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, would the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, kindly explain which parts of this bill need clarifying?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I think it is too late now to go into that.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Banking for the purpose of considering those amendments. It is one of the important banking bills.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. Amendments are pending, and must be disposed of.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object to unanimous consent to the offering of these amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is too late with his objection.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in order to clarify this situation. I would respectfully request the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, to withdraw his amendments at this time; and if the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Banking, he will have an opportunity to present his amendments in committee, where they will be given intelligent consideration. I would request him to withdraw his amendments at this time.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I do withdraw them.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I now move that Senate Bill No. 1446, be recommitted to the Committee on Banking:

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

L. 21), entitled "An act defining optometry and relating to the right to practice optometry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making certain exceptions and providing a Board of Optometrical Education Examination and Licensure and means and methods whereby the right to practice optometry may be obtained and providing for the means to carry out the provisions of this act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said board and providing penalties for violations thereof and repealing all acts parts of acts inconsistent therewith" by further defining optometry prescribing the qualifications of schools and courses in optometry and further regulating the practice of optometry

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on secoond reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 928 (House Bill No. 1082), be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twenty-six Senators voted in the affirmative and twelve in the negative; whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

MOTION TO CONSIDER BILLS ON SECOND READING

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth, I move that the bills on second reading be read section by se tion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. There is no alternative; the Cha must proceed accordingly.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it is half past o o'clock, and we are all tired; and this being a move obstruct the reading of the bills, I move that the Sena do now adjourn.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I second the motio

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, M Huffman, state to what hour he moves that the Sena adjourn?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, to eleven o'clock t morrow morning.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIR and Mr. HUFFMAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—21

Aron,	Graff,	McGinnis,	Rupp,
Baumer,	Huffman,	Norton,	Sones,
Buckman,	Kahle,	Rice,	Thompson,

Clark,	McClure,	Reed,	Thompson,
Ealy,	Miller.	(Dauphin)	(Westmoreland
Gelder,	Owlett,		Ziesenheim,

ORDER OF THE DAY CALLED

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I call f the order of the day.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, M Thompson, has slept upon his rights.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I subm that a call for the order of the day is in order; that does not need to be called exactly at 12 o'clock, but any time thereafter.

The PRESIDENT. According to the understanding the Chair the point is not well taken; the order of th day must be called at 12 o'clock.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO MAKE REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous conse to report a bill from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous conse to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. CAVALVANTE. Mr. President, I withdraw m objection.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask that just this one age be read.

The PRESIDENT. The resolutioon may be sent to the esk, and will be read for the information of the Senate.

The resolution was thereupon sent to the desk.

The PRESIDENT. The Secretary informs the Chair iat the resolution offered by the Senator from Alleheny, Mr. Harris, is not a proper resolution.

EQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO MAKE REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous conent to report a bill from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate o now recess until eleven A. M. today.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that a iotion to recess will not give the Senate a legislative ay within the meaning of the Constitution.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, if the previous question is ut of order, I move that the Senate do now recess for a eriod of nine hours and twenty minutes.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the notion made by the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, is n order.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it seems to me that we want to conduct the affairs here in order; and I think t is in error to recess until tomorrow. New business aving transpired, I renew my motion to adjourn until omorrow morning at eleven o'clock

The PRESIDENT. There is a motion pending.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, a motion to adjourn akes precedence.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to adjourn takes precedence; that is true.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HUFFMAN and Mr. ROGERS, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—20

Baumer,	Kahle,	Rice,	Thompson,
Buckman,	Law,	Roberts,	(Centre)
Coyne,	Mallery,	Rodgers,	Thompson,
Frey,	McCreesh,	Rupp,	(Westmoreland)
Graff,	Norton,	Sones,	Trainer,
Huffman,	Rankin,

NAYS—25

Cavalcante,	Homsher,	Prince,	Shapiro,
Chapman,	Howell,	Pytko,	Staudenmeier,
Clark,	McClure,		Ziesenheim,

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess for five minutes.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I move that the Sergeant-at-Arms be sent out for the absent members.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO and Mr. LAW, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—14

Baumer,	Frey,	Law,	Thompson,
Buckman,	Gelder,	McClure,	(Centre)
Clark,	Graff,	Pierson,	Trainer,
Coyne,	Homsher,	Reed,
		(Dauphin)

NAYS—26

Bennett,	Huffman,	Pytko,	Staudenmeier,
Cavalcante,	Kahle,	Rankin,	Thompson
Chapman,	McCreesh,	Reed	(Westmoreland)
Ealy,	McGinnis,	(Washington)	Ziesenheim,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, we have on this calendar today twenty-nine pages of bills. We have also, among the bills on second reading some very important measures dealing with the tax program. Now, we have continually, since last week, passed second reading bills from day to day—until we have, as a result, a calendar that has held us until two o'clock A. M., and have not got to second reading. Also, we have passed a resolution to adjourn on the 21st. I am sounding a warning that if we do not stop fooling, and get down to business, we will not be able to adjourn on the date set. If the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, persists in his motion to read the bills at length, I am willing to stay here but, under the circumstances, I think the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, may well reconsider. If he does not, I propose to stay here and, at least to the extent of my vote, object to any running away from reading the bills at this time.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr .ARON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until eleven o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask that the roll be called on the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, that question has already been decided.

The PRESIDENT. A motion to adjourn is in order at any time.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this is the identical motion that was made before—to adjourn until eleven o'clock A. M. It would not have been identical had the time been set at twelve o'clock or two o'clock.

The PRESIDENT. All motions to adjourn are identical; the time does not make any difference in them.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, in making this motion—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, a motion to adjourn is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is well taken.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. REED and Mr. HOWELL and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—13

Aron,	Frey,	Norton,	Roberts,
Baumer,	Huffman,	Prince,	Thompson,
Buckman,	Kahle,	Rice,	(Centre)
Coyne,	Mallery,

Batchelor,	Graff,	Miller,	Reed,
Bean,	Harris,	Owlett,	(Washington)
Bennett,	Harvey,	Pierson,	Shapiro,

Chapman,	Howell,	Rankin,	Thompson,
Clark,	Law,	Reed,	(Westmoreland)
Ealy,	McClure,	(Dauphin)	Trainer,
Gelder,	McGinnis,		Ziesenheim,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO READ BILLS THE SECOND TIME

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to consider bills on second reading in the usual manner.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if I were to insist upon my request that these bills be read at length, section by section, I take it that, under the ruling of the Chair, that would have to be done.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is correct in his understanding of the Chair's ruling.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not, however, insist.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, to show how ridiculous we have acted here tonight, I now move that we adjourn until eleven o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. REED (Washington) and were as follows:

YEAS—9

Baumer,	Kahle,	Pytko,	Thompson,
Coyne,	Mallery,	Rankin,	(Centre)
Frey,	Prince,

Aron,	Ealy,	McClure,	Reed,

Chapman,	Howell,	Reed,	(Westmoreland)
Clark,	Law,	(Dauphin)	Trainer,
			Ziesenheim,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO CONSIDER BILLS ON SECOND READING

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, we have acted like a bunch of school children long enough. I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of bills on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is not seconded.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 848, as follows:

An Act to provide for Sexual Sterilization of Mental Defectives Providing circumstances under which sterilization of certain types of individuals may be performed without civil or criminal liability on the physician or surgeon performing such operation and providing penalties

Whereas The State now has in custody and is supporting at great expense many mentally deficient persons who when discharged are likely by the propagation of their kind to increase the social and economic burden and who if imcapable of propagating might be discharged or paroled and thereby lessen the economic burdens of the State and

Whereas The Welfare of society and the health and personal liberty of the individual may be promoted in certain cases by the sterilization of mental defectives under careful safeguards and by competent and conscientious authority and

Whereas Such sterilization may be effected in males by vasectomy and in females by salpingectomy both of which operations may be performed without serious pain or substantial danger to the life of the patient or without the removal of any tissue or organ and

Whereas Human experience has demonstrated that heredity plays an important part in the transmission of idiocy imbecility and mental deficiency now therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That it is hereby declared to be the policy of this Commonwealth to promote the public welfare by preventing pro-creation of idiots imbeciles and feeble-minded persons in cases where the individual welfare of such idiots imbeciles and feeble-minded persons likely to procreate may be improved by selective sexual sterilization

Section 2, (a) Whenever the superintendent of a State or licensed institution for the mentally defective and two disinterested legally qualified physicians shall be of the opinion that it is for the best interest of an inmate of such institution and of society that such inmate shall be sexually sterilized such superintendent is hereby authorized to cause an operation for sterilization to be performed and to issue an authorization therefore inwriting signed by such superintendent and the two disinterested physicians Provided that before any such operation is performed at least thirty days' written notice together with a copy of such written authorization shall be given by personal service upon the person alleged to be an imbecile or feeble-minded if above the age of ten years and upon th husband wife father mother child of full age sister brother or guardian of committee of such alleged mental defective

Section 3 All authorization shall be made in duplicate The one copy of institutional patients shall be filed with the superintendent of such institution and the other copy shall be filed in the Department of Welfare of this Commonwealth No such records shall be open to public inspection

Section 4 Any person upon whom an operation for sterilization has been authorized on his or her husband wife father mother child of full age brother sister or guardian or committee may within thirty days after such authorization appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of the county where the State or licensed institution wherein the patient is detained is located or to the court of common pleas of the county from which the patient was committed or where he is a resident The petition for such appeal shall state briefly the nature of the objections and the grounds for the appeal After hearing upon such appeal the court may sustain modify or set aside the authorization

Section 5 Supreme Court Appeal Any order of sexual sterilization granted after due appeal may within three months after date be appealed to Supreme Court by any party of record in appeal in court of common pleas Such petition shall state briefly the nature of all previous proceedings and shall set forth the order or decision complained of and the grounds upon which the same is claimed to be unlawful or unreasonable upon which the petitioner shall reply in the Supreme Court The pendency of such appeal shall stay proceedings under order until the decision of the Supreme Court is made

Section 6 No superintendent of any institution physician or surgeon or other person performing any operation for sterilization or assisting or in any wise participating therein in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be liable in any civil action for damages or in any criminal prosecution or in any wise howsoever because thereof

Section 7 Any person or any physician violating any of the provisions of this act or performing any operation for the sterilization of a person except in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or suffer imprisonment for not less than one year or more than two years or both and upon conviction of a second or subsequent offense shall be subject to the fine above provided and shall be imprisoned for not less than one year or more than two years

Section 8 The compensation of the consulting physicians and surgeons in the case of public charges shall be entrusted to the management of the several institutions and shall be paid out of the funds appropriated for the maintenance of such institutions

Section 9 All laws inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 10 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 848, the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I shall be delighted.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, what is the purpose of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, in making this motion?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, for the purpose of defeating this bill in committee.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, that is not the proper way to do that; the proper way to kill this bill is to vote on it tomorrow, after we pass it on second reading. I therefore ask the Senate not to vote for this motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HARRIS and Mr. GELDER and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—12

Clark,	Harris,	Norton,	Pytko,
Coyne,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Staudenmeier,
Gelder,	Howell,	Prince,	Trainer,

Aron,	Ealy,	McGinnis,	Rice,
Batchelor,	Frey,	Miller,	Roberts,
Baumer,	Graff,	Owlett,	Shapiro,
Bean,	Harvey,	Rankin,	Thompson,
Bennett,	Kahle,	Reed,	(Centre)
Buckman,	Law,	(Dauphin)	Thompson,
Cavalcante,	Mallery,	Reed,	(Westmoreland)
Chapman,	McClure,	(Washington)	Ziesenheim,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 854 (House No. 1069), on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one two four twenty-seven and seventy-one of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 493) entitled "An act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business of work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" as amended extending the provisions of said act to boroughs of five thousand population or more and incorporated towns and townships of the first class extending the same to include building drainage imposing certain powers and duties on the Department of Health making further provisions for the administration of said act extending the specifications increasing certain fees and payments and providing increased penalties including imprisonment.

be recommitted to Committee on Public Health.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I would like to inquire why the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, wants to recommit this bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am asking that this bill be recommitted for the purpose of further study. From an examination of this bill, I find that there are provisions in this bill requiring certain kinds of plumbing which are recognized as antiquated, and which are required in the bill simply for the purpose of taking additional time. If the bill can be amended so as to make it a good bill, I am satisfied; if it cannot be so amended, I do not want it reported out. Does that answer the question of the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, would the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, be willing to find out whether the amendments offered will meet the objections?—whether they will be entertained, and the bill be reported out?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, certainly.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twenty-seven Senators voted in the affirmative and eleven in the negative;

Whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1024, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one hundred seventy-two and one hundred seventy-three of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. In the Senate, June 3, 1935.

Whereas There was introduced into the General Assembly a bill commonly known as the Pittsburgh Ripper Bill that if enacted into law will abolish the office of Mayor in the City of Pittsburgh and

Whereas The real purpose of this bill seems to be to remove the Honorable William McNair from the office of Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh by legislative authority notwithstanding that he could be removed by appropriate legal proceedings if found guilty of malfeasance in office or that he had been elected to the office of Mayor at the preceding election by a large majority of the votes cast or that a newspaper poll taken after the introduction into the General Assembly of the above mentioned bill indicated that a large majority of the voters were still desirous of having him as their chief executive and

Whereas The real objection to having the said William McNair serve as Mayor for the full term to which he had been elected seems to be that his independence in the administration of his official duties especially his dispensing of political patronage is not satisfactory to the Democratic organziation of that City and

Whereas Various newspapers circulating in Pennsylvania have published news items and have given considerable editorial space to the above mentioned bill generally agreeing that all the Democratic Senators will support the bill and inferring if not actually alleging that in order to secure the votes of seven Republican Senators necessary to have the bill pass that parties having at their disposal political patronage were offering Republican Senators jobs or positions for their friends or constituents in return for votes to have the said bill reported out of committee and for final passage in the Senate and

Whereas This seems to be a serious reflection on the honesty and integrity of members of the Senate therefore be it

Resolved That the President pro Tempore of the Senate appoint a committee consisting of three Senators to investigate the charges made by various newspapers as to the methods used to secure the passage of said bill and of all lobbying done in the interest of this bill or of any offer made to any member of the General Assembly for his or her support in favor of said bill and to all other matters in connection therewith The said committee to make a report of its findings to the Senate for such action as may seem desirable And be it further

Resolved That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary

Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of the Commonwealth Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS EXTENDED TO HON. ALBERT E. RINN

Mr. WEISS offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted.

In the House of Representatives June 3, 1935

Whereas, The voters of the Second District of Lehigh County have for the first time in many years elected a true Democrat known socially and politically throughout this Nation, and other European countries, in the person of the Honorable Al E. Rinn, and

Whereas, We, the Members of the House of Representatives, have come to love and respect this Honorable Gentleman known to all of us as "Al", and

Whereas, The said "Al" Rinn has become an idol to all automobile users as a result of his untiring efforts and ability in promoting legislation to keep truck traffic off the highways on Sundays, and

Whereas, The said "Al" Rinn has become an idol to all first birthday on June 6, 1935, the age at which many men become eligible for old age pension, now therefore be it

Resolved, That this House extend its heartiest congratulations to the gentleman from Lehigh, Honorable Al E. Rinn, upon attaining his seventy-first milestone, and that this House do all rise for a few moments in proper honor, and a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to the Honorable Gentleman from Lehigh, Honorable Al E. Rinn.

RESOLUTION NO. 146.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 146, Printer's No. 1284.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 13, 1935.

Whereas, Many small business enterprises are conducted in properties which are at the same time used as homesteads, on which under existing Federal laws the Home Owners' Loan Corporation is unable to grant loans; and

Whereas, Such small business enterprises are a necessity in the residential sections of large centers of population; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to foster and enact legislation which will enable the Home Owners' Loan Corporation to grant loans on real property erected for the combined use of business as dwellings.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States by the Chief Clerk of this House.

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with the early adjournment last week I found it possible to spend a few days up in the Pocono Mountains, in the woods and among the animals and the wild life such as we have at this time of the year. As one gets into the peaceful confines of that beautiful part of our State and has the opportunity to get away from the hurly-burly of the Legislative Session, he gets an opportunity to have a broader vision and to see things perhaps with a different eye than he does here in Harrisburg, in contact with all of the issues and with all of the divergent opinions of the members of this House. So, as I spent those days in the woods and as I listened to the early call of the birds, for it appears that in spite of Supreme Court decisions and of legislation, old Mother Nature was going on just the same; the leaves were coming out on the trees; the native flowers of the woods were in blossom; the birds were building their nests, propagating, that we might have more birds for another year, it seemed to me that perhaps some of the thoughts that ran through my mind might be of interest to the members of the House at this time, as we enter upon the final weeks of the session. So, I am going to ask your indulgence for a few moments while I read to you that which I jotted down while I was in the Poconos.

No matter whether or not one agrees with the Supreme Court decision as it affects the NRA, there must come to all thinking Americans a profound feeling of relief that once more the Constitution has been upheld and that the dangerous practice of evading its restrictions under the guise of necessity has been ended. Where the object sought is proper, the danger in evasion on the ground of necessity, lies in the possibility that tomorrow its provisions may be flouted by the evil and unscrupulous for improper purposes.

No true American will support sweat shops, child labor, starvation wages, and improper labor conditions. Every citizen with any sense of economics wants a fair division of the profits, proper working conditions, and the opportunity for the individual to better his condition. But it must now be patent that these things must be accomplished by orderly processes within the Constitution, and not by broad delegations of power to the Executive by a rubber stamp Congress.

The last 150 years of American history in which the living and wage standards of the working people have been raised far beyond that of any other country in the world; and the life story of not only the very rich but of thousands of people in the great middle class of Americans who have lifted themselves from humble beginnings to places of respect and economic security, are conclusive evidence of the basic soundness of a system which has done more to promote the life, liberty and happiness of a whole people than any other yet devised.

Forgetting the blessings of our free government and the progress made thereunder, many who are trying to lead, have let their sympathies run away with them to such an extent that they are interpreting the present condition of our people as "economic serfdom." With continuous ballyhoo they are creating in the minds of those in want a false picture of themselves and a false sense of the obligations of government to maintain and support them. Prosperity was once said to be just around the corner. In the same sense, these wrong-thinking theorists are envisioning the millenium as being just around the corner. It is cruel to so mislead a people.

Those who would regiment industry or labor under bureaucratic control of a Federal Government, and those who would curtail production and limit expansion in order that the 10% of our people, consisting mostly of the weak and improvident, may be lifted to a higher level, are dooming to economic slavery and mediocrity in the future, the 80% of our people who but desire the opportunity, as free men, to achieve their own station.

This has been called an era of plenty. The end of the pursuit of happiness does not lie in the restriction, regimentation and curtailment of that plenty, but in its wider use and diffusion among a greater number.

Let us hope that the Supreme Court decision, therefore, may have a sobering influence upon this Legislature and that it will be realized that the mere wish to accomplish an end by legislative enactment does not justify the passage of bills that are unconstitutional and unsound.

No one who has given thought to our national and state problems arising out of this depression and the demand of many that they shall not return, will deny that there is a need for state legislation. But it was beyond the realm of possibility to expect that these difficult problems could be solved by a new and inexperienced Administration during its first session of the Legislature. It was unfortunate that the Administration and the new majority in the House, lacking legislative background, introduced unconstitutional, illconsidered, and contradictory legislation, most of which would not only have been destructive and harmful to business and industry, but in the end would have meant disaster to our working people. Therefore, this legislation should not be passed. If, as a result, we must for the time being be called "Tories" and "Reactionaries", let us stand steadfast in the knowledge that the experience of the next few months will justify our position.

On March 7th, 1935, I made a statement to this House, advising as to Legislation and pointing out the following facts and reasons in support of my contentions:

(1) As there was likely to be a Constitutional Convention and therefore the possibility of a new Constitution, that much legislation might have only a temporary life and might be out of line with the provisions of such Constitution.

(2) As it was improbable that the Federal Legislation dealing with social security and economic policies affecting the average person would unlikely be passed before the present legislative session ended, that it was foolish to enact laws within these fields which might not be in accordance with the Federal laws.

(3) As no one could predict the requirements for unemployment relief over a long period of time, and as no one could foretell what the situation would be after the Federal Work Relief program was developed, that it was inadvisable to make appropriations for unemployment relief for a period of more than one year.

(4) If a new Constitution were adopted a Special Session of the Legislature would be necessary. And even if this event did not compel a Special Session, the need of coordinating State with Federal laws on social and economic programs, and the requirements of unemployment relief would force and justify the calling of such session.

(5) While it must be apparent that the speeding up of business, thus creating more employment, was one of the prime requisites of the day, most of the legislation introduced was to tax and place further burdens and restrictions upon business, none was to help business.

(6) By allowing business a breathing space from such burdens, confidence would be created, which is perhaps the greatest need of the moment, in the return of business to normalcy.

Since the delivery of that statement it seems assured that the question as to whether there shall be a constitutional convention will be submitted to the people in September.

It has been definitely determined that unemployment relief shall be provided for a period of one year, and a tax program to sustain appropriations for this purpose is in the stages of completion.

The Legislature is to adjourn on the 21st, and as before predicted, the Federal program of so-called social security Legislation has not been enacted into law. In addition, the United States Supreme Court, in finding the NRA unconstitutional, has upset the Federal program and created a situation that will require new plans and new legislation.

While this decision can not directly affect the enactment of State legislation, which would set up codes and regulations as to business, at the same time it must be apparent to any thinking person that the State can not place regulations and restrictions upon Penna. business which might place it in unfair and ruinous competition with business in other states. It has been repeatedly said in defense of NRA that the small percentage of chiselers and price cutters fix prices and regulate wage scales. If this be true nationally, then if one state fail to set up standards in any industry equal to those in other states, industry in the high standard state can not hope to exist. This would be a catastrophe not only for the employers but also for labor, who would be deprived of employment or compelled to work at ruinous wages.

This whole question of social security, hours and wages for labor is so closely inter-woven that no one step should be taken without some consideratioon of the whole picture. One step might not be harmful, but the cumulative effect could be destructive.

The situation today more clearly demonstrates the necessity for legislative study. In less than a year this Legislature will again be in Special Session. Let us hope that it will return prepared to intelligently meet the great problems that are before us. We cannot hope to solve them in the hurry of a legislative session. Time must be taken to study Federal Acts and to develop plans for legislation to meet state requirements.

In the statement of March 7th, I recommended the following committees to make such study:

(a) Committee on State Finance, to study the financial needs and requirements and the reduction of the cost of government.

(b) Committee on State Taxes, to study the available sources of taxation and the equitable distribution of the burden thereof.

(c) Committee on Social Legislation, to study the Federal programs and the necessary coordinating legislation.

(d) Committee on Unemployment and Unemployment Relief.

The gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, introduced a bill for the appointment of a permanent joint committee on State Government. This is a constructive step. The bill has passed the House and, it is sincerely hoped, will be passed by the Senate and signed by the Governor. In the event that it becomes a law, a resolution should be introduced giving to this Permanent State Government Committee, the right to appoint sub-committees to carry out the above suggestions.

Whether we be called upon to serve on committees or not, let us dedicate ourselves to an intelligent and impartial study of the issues of the day, and let us highly resolve to return to the Special Session, and guided by our experience, secure the passage of legislation to solve our financial difficulties and to better the social and economic condition of the people of this Commonwealth.

RESOLUTION NO. 133.

Miss BRANCATO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 133, Printer's No. 828.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, The President and Congress, in order to alleviate unemployment, in developing various public works; and

Whereas, In the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, there has been constructed an extension to the Broad Street subway, which extension runs from South Street to Snyder Avenue in the city of Philadelphia, and which was built at a cost of $4,000,000; and

Whereas, The said subway extension was completed several years ago, it never was equipped for operation, because the authorities of the city of Philadelphia could not, or would not, secure the necessary funds for such equipment, all to the great loss and inconvenience to the citizens of Philadelphia: and

Whereas, The work of equipping said subway extension would give employment to many persons now unemployed; and

Whereas, The equipping of said subway extension would result in the full completion of a self-liquidating public enforcement of great importance and usefulness to the citizens of Philadelphia; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully memorialize the President and Congress of the United States to consider the advisibility and feasibility of including within the public works program the equipping of the South Broad Street subway extension; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House and the Chief Clerk of the Senate, to the President of the United States, the Vice President, and the President of the Senate, and to the speaker of the House of Representatives, and to all the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 157.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 157, Printer's No. 1285.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 22, 1935.

Whereas, The Luzerne County Unemployed League Inc., an organization of unemployed and employed citizens of Luzerne County, are deeply concerned about the present inadequacy of relief distribution and the manner in which the relief is administered in Luzerne County; and

Whereas, From time to time, the unemployed have tried to assist in the solving of the local economic problems, and to find ways and means to ease the suffering amongst the people, and to a small degree have been successful, but have attained no considerable results; and

Whereas, It is alleged that the relief administration of Luzerne County, supported by the Assistant State Administrator is now subjecting the relief clients to relief cuts, loss of clothing and shoe vouchers, and to loss of Federal surplus commodities that are contributed by the Federal Government, and subjected to a monopoly of relief coal distribution; and

Whereas, It is alleged that the people of the county on relief cannot secure placements on the relief staff, and that the unemployed applicants for these positions are not being considered outside of being given an examination; and

Whereas, Requests have been made from time to time for the removal of various executives, and in a few instances, such requests have been successful, but it is alleged that the fact remains that political influences in the background protect others from removal; and

Whereas, Under the past administration, the General Assembly appointed legislative committees to investigate the operations of the entire State relief setup, but it is believed without tangible results; and

Whereas, It seems to be the feeling of said league that favoritism, politics and inefficiency have brought about the continuance of this unfortunate situation; and

Whereas, It is the belief of the great body of citizens of said county that the matter can only be corrected if properly brought to the attention of the General Assembly, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House, whose duty it shall be to thoroughly and impartially investigate the activities and personnel of the Luzerne County Emergency Relief Board and all phases of relief activities in said county, whether State or National, including the so-called re-employment service and the office known as the "Placement Office" in Wilkes-Barre, as well as any other governmental agencies in said county dealing with relief, with a view of ascertaining whether or not the allegations set forth in the preamble of this resolution are true, and to make report to the House of Representatives at the earliest possible date.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer any such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents, as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee, or to produce any papers, books, records, or documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Resolved, That said committee shall have the further right and authority to issue a requisition to any Luzerne County relief board, bureau or agency, for such stenographic help or service as it may deem necessary under the circumstances, in the taking of testimony and the conduct of hearings, and such other services as may be necessary.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the provisions of Resolution No. 157, Printer's No. 1285, the Chair appoints the following Committee: Messrs Yourishin, Chairman, Hermansen, Roan, Mason and Shortz.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. ANDREWS, from the Committee on Rules reported as amended, House Resolution No. 155.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN, from the Committee on Judiciary Local reported as committed, House Resolution No. 160.

CONGRATULATIONS EXTENDED MESSRS. BALDI AND EBERHARTER

Mr. TUMELTY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 3, 1935.

Whereas, many of our citizens were decorated for bravery during the many wars in which Our Country was engaged, and

Whereas, Word has reached this house that two of our members have recently performed a, beyond a doubt, heroic act, and

Whereas, The vast difference in the districts which they represent proves that heroism extends from border to border of our Great Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House extends its sincere congratulations to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, for their unselfish heroism in taming a Badger on Tuesday, May 28th, 1935 in the City of Harrisburg, and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be sent to Bring 'em back alive Frank Buck in case he needs any assistance in the future.

SPECIAL ORDER ON RESOLUTION

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this hour, being a resolution to place House Bill No. 116, Printer's No. 1210 on the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

Resolved That House Bill Number one hundred sixteen Printer's Number one thousand two hundred ten entitled "An act providing for limiting and regulating the suspension removal dismissal and demotion of certain employes of the Commonwealth creating a Personnel Commission defining its powers and duties providing for appeals to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County and making an appropriation" which was reported from the Committee on State Government on May twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five with a negative recommendation be placed on the calendar notwithstanding such negative recommendation

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to support the resolution. House Bill No. 116, Printer's No. 1210, is not a civil service measure, it is a tenure bill. It bases tenure upon the faithful performance of duty. The bill provides that persons employed by the state—not cabinet officers, not bureau chiefs, not members of commissions,—but the little people who have served five years shall not be subject to removal except for cause, the cause to be stated in the form of written charges with the person accused accorded the right to be heard.

Every step in this procedure is recognized, is accorded status everywhere except in the political arena.

Who are to be the judges? The members of a personnel commission of three to be appointed by the Governor. But not all those on the state payroll, even among the little people, the minor office holders, are subject to the provisions of this bill.

The terms of the measure, I repeat, apply only to those who have been on the pay roll for five years. This figure was chosen deliberately in order that no one might say that the measure representd an effort to perpetuate the Pinchot pay roll.

During the last five years there has been a tremendous turnover in the personnel employed by the state. Less than twenty-five per cent of the state employes. I am informed, at Harrisburg would be immediately affected if this were to become a law.

A tenure bill of this kind is a step necessarily precedent to civil service. No merit system, whether tenure or civil service, should perpetuate a governmental establishment, wholly Republican or wholly Democratic in its political alliances. The pending measure, House Bill No. 116, represents a compromise, a midway point from which it is possible to begin definitely marching into the midst of a state-wide civil service law.

I am not coming before you tonight with strange doctrines. The Democratic Party has been definitely committed to the merit system since the days of Grover Cleveland. In every national platform of the Democratic Party since eighteen eighty-eight, the party has stated its conviction that Jackson was wrong, that the classified public service is the spoils of political wars. While both the Democratic and the Republican leaders have upon occasion evaded the spirit and even the letter of the merit system they have not dared to repudiate civil service enactments; on the contrary both parties, have extended tenure and have enlarged the scope of civil service laws.

The House in nineteen hundred and thirteen, as some of the old timers may recall, passed a civil service law with teeth in it. Had that bill become a law, both Republican and Democratic leaders would have been spared many present woes.

I am asking this House tonight to recognize in the form of law a principle to which this present administration has so far conformed in practice. I need not call your attention to the long list of appointments which can only be defended upon a strictly merit basis.

I am asking this House definitely to repudiate the theory of the spoils system. And what is that theory? It is this: The spoils system advocates that those state employes who shall have served in all loyalty, shall have served efficiently, shall have been honest, capable and untiringly diligent,—that all of this shall be of no avail. You cannot base sound administration upon any system which fails to recognize honesty, fidelity and efficiency as qualities which deserve consideration, recognition and reward. In this, perhaps our fleeting hour of victory, there is a demand for jobs for Democrats, and every time a deserving Democrat is rewarded, ten fresh Democrats arise. One can well imagine that the spirit of those now departing from public life shall say after the fashion of the epitaph which read:

"As you are now, so once was I.
As I am now, so you will be.
Prepare for death and follow me."

Every successful party builds for power, and building over-reaches and destroys itself, because there comes a time when party leaders forget that all power is inherent in the people. Power is not inherent in the payroll; we only think it is. It is not those who hold public office who control the ultimate destiny of parties. It is the hand that holds the plow, the hammer, the tools of industry and the hands that perform the ministry of the home that make and unmake parties rather than those who hold the jobs. In the end it is the service a party renders and not who renders it that counts. If payrolls were all-powerful George Earle would not be Governor and this House would not be Democratic. From the standpoint of practical politics, the more jobs the more the grief. Patronage makes an organization strong within a party but patronage does not make a party strong within a state or within a nation.

I am not contending that the Democrats should not be proportionately represented upon public payrolls. They should be, and I am agreed that politically minded Republicans should step out when a Democratic administration steps in. Let those who live by the sword perish by the sword, I am agreed—but of the many kinds of loyalty, there is one loyalty that towers above all others: Loyalty to the service of the state. Administrations come and go but the state remains. The state trooper and the members of the State patrol ride their dangerous ways, serving not party but the state, and we would not have it otherwise. When the snow crews face a biting storm to clear a mountain highway, they are not serving party, they are serving a state, and that is what we want, that is what we should be doing: Building in the midst of all this turmoil, this conflict of ambitions, this rivalry for place, a standard of state service, a standard which we would continually raise higher and higher. We may not all of us be invariably true to our ideals, but we cannot entirely discard them if we are to survive.

Members of the House, the right course is not invariably the practical course. House Bill No. 116 is a stepping stone to continued power, it is one of the measures we should enact if we desire to return, and it is surely one of the measures we should pass if we are transient factors in this political scene. I regard House Bill 116 as a symbol of enlightened selfishness. By its enactment, we will place ourselves in line with the traditional policies of our party; we will place ourselves in line with the practices and the pledges of this administration. By enacting this bill and dealing justly with those not of our political faith we will lay a foundation upon which we can stand in the days to come and demand justice for ourselves.

I ask this House in the interests of sound administration, as a service to the Democratic party of tomorrow, as a service to the state and as a measure of justice to deserving people to place House Bill 116 on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I rise for the purpose of supporting the action of the Committee on State Government in reporting this bill with a negative recommendation. I also rise to oppose the resolution of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

I point to the members of this House the fact that the bill provides only for the retention of those individuals holding office who have been in office for a period of five years or more. I point to the Democratic members the fact that it is not a bill in line with the theories of Grover Cleveland or of the Democratic Party, for efficiency and ability are not mentioned in this bill. I point to you all the fact that there are many people serving here in Harrisburg today who have served for a period of less than five years who are both efficient and able, but they, of course, could be removed.

If I did not know the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, so well, I could not help but conclude that the bill perhaps was drawn only for the purpose of protecting some individual or individuals. I do not make that claim here, but I do make this claim to the members, that it will not protect the large bulk of individuals who have affiliations with the Republican party but who were appointed in the last administration, and by the same token it will not protect those individuals who may be appointed by the Governor of the present administration.

I say to you that it is nothing but a hybrid child. It retains every one of the faults of our present system and it does not add one good feature of a civil service bill. If we are to have any legislation along this line, let us have legislation along the line of civil service that will bring efficient and capable people into office and will not be based alone on a five year tenure, which means absolutely nothing.

I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on th resolution.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interroga the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, M Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentlema from Berks, as the majority leader of this House, wheth the administration, the Democratic administration, is f or against placing this bill upon the calendar?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I cannot speak for the ad ministration, because they have not talked to me abo this bill

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Berk able to tell us whether the Democratic majority of th House is for or against the placing of this bill upon th calendar?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, M Eberharter, will state his point of order.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentle man from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, is out of order whe he asks that question.

The SPEAKER. The question is for the member tha is being interrogated, whether he wishes to answer it o not.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will answer that by sayin that apparently a majority of the Committee was not i favor of this bill. I cannot speak for the majority in th House.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interro gate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, M Ruth, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that upo this measure there has been no expression of opinion fro the administration as to whether or not the administratio is backing this measure in the House or whether they ar opposing this measure in this House?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Phila delphia, explain what he means by the "administration"?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, if I am being interrogate and the gentleman is asking me the question, I can onl refer to the fact that I have asked that question on number of occasions and that the answer that I got, as understood it, was that the Democratic administration con sisted of the Democratic Party that won the election i November of nineteen thirty-four, and my question i directed to that party which is now in control of thi House. I am merely inquiring as to whether or not th Democratic administration represented by the Democrati members of this House stand as a unit or are divided whether they are opposed to House Bill No. 116.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman wi find out when the vote is taken.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentlema whether he is in favor of putting this bill on the calendar

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, the answer is just what I stated before: The gentleman will find out when the vote is taken.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can take a joke but it seems to me that the Democratic majority of this House —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Eroe, will state his point of order.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not discussing this resolution.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have not said a word.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed and will confine himself to the resolution now before the House.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, when the point of order was made, I had merely said "it seems to me that the Democratic majority of this House"—I will now proceed from that point. It seems that the Democratic majoriy of this House when they are in what we might call a tight spot resort to evasion and refuse—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lawrence will state his point of order.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not discussing the resolution. He is discussing the Democratic party.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will confine himself to the resolution now before the House.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, it appears to me that the Democratic majority of this House when they find themselves in a position upon a resolution that is before the House, where they are asked to give to the people of Pennsylvania and to the Legislature here their views as to whether or not they are for or against placing a bill—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is still discussing the Democratic party.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has several times requested the gentleman from Philadelphia to confine himself to the resolution and the Chair hopes that he will do so.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot confine myself anymore definitely to the subject than I am now doing. I am discussing the attitude of a party, one of the parties there being three in the House—upon a particular resolution and I have said—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks will state his point of order.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is referring to me. He insulted me the night of the baseball game and he is trying to do the same tonight, and I object to it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine himself to the resolution.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I regret that the gentleman is so easily insulted when academic discussions are being had. My remarks were not intended as an insult, they are intended as common, ordinary commonsense debate, and if they cannot be so understood by the Democratic floor leader, then I am sorry.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have an issue here. The issue appears to be whether or not you are going to put this bill on the Calendar.

We have listened to the gentleman from Cambria. Mr. Andrews, the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman. They have discussed the merits and the demerits of this bill. Latitude was given to them to discuss it. I don't ask for latitude and I won't discuss the merits of the bill. I am going to discuss the question as to whether this bill ought to be put on the calendar or whether it ought not be put on the calendar, and I seek no favors or latitude from either the Speaker or from the majority members of this House, but I do seek this, I seek information. I have a right to seek information, whether I be in the minority or in the majority. When I was in the majority, I gave information, I never refused to answer a question, and as a minority member I ask for information.

The information I seek is now, do the democrats of this House stand upon the principle as to whether or not a bill of such great importance ought to be voted upon by the membership of the House, not whether you are for the bill or whether you are for the contents of the bill, not whether you believe that five, ten, fifteen or one year is the proper provision in the bill, but I am merely seeking light as to whether or not you believe this bill to be one of sufficient importance in the carrying out or in the failure to carry out the platform of the Democratic party. I say to the membership of this House whether you want to vote for it or whether you want to vote against it, you ought to have the courage to put the bill in the position where you are either going to say to the people of Pennsylvania, "When we campaigned upon the issue, we were only campaigning, we were only fooling," or whether or not you are going to say to the people of Pennsylvania "We really meant what we said, when we campaigned the State from one end of it to the other."

We have a precedent in this House for putting bills upon the calendar, which had been reported with a negative recommendation. You did it on a bill that was introduced by the gentleman whose county I cannot recall at the moment—Mr. VanSickle. I ask you to do it in this particular case; I ask you to do it for this reason: I object to your hiding behind the screen. I want you to be able to come out in the open. I want you to vote on this measure. I want the people back home to know whether or not the campaign pledges that you made were sincere or whether, to use common vernacular, they were hokum. A vote to put this bill on the calendar will enable you and enable me to express our thoughts on this bill.

I am frank to say to this House that were this bill on the calendar as far as I am concerned I would vote against it, and that is a frank statement from me, but I have the courage to vote against it. All I ask of you is that you have equal courage. If you are opposed to it, then let your vote be recorded, but I object to evasion, I object to men getting offended too easily. We are here as a parliamentary body. We are here to enact laws. We are here to stop laws from being enacted. You can be as critical as you want of me, you can oppose my methods, you can dislike me, you can dislike my attitude—that makes no difference to me politically; perhaps it does on the outside. but there is one thing that I insist upon; I insist upon my rights for my party, whether I be in the minority or in the majority. I gave those rights when I was in the majority and I want them when I am in the minority. I am going to ask you to have the courage of your convictions and let the people know how you stand, whether you are hypocritical, endeavoring to avoid an unpleasant task, in order to avoid showing up the people in your party who pledged their support to this kind of legislation.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to make a statement: The Democratic Party did not campaign on civil service and it was not one of the party pledges.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I think this is the second time that the gentleman from Philadelphia is trying to draw the issue upon which the importance of the votes and the intention of that vote should be drawn.

In defining the issue that is before the membership of this House, as the gentleman from Philadelphia has intimated, this is a parliamentary body and we expect to be governed by the rules of parliamentary debate.

The issue presented is a simple one: Do we wish to place this bill on the active calendar or to allow it to die with its negative recommendation.

I for one, and I feel sure the membership of this House have just as much courage as the gentleman from Philadelphia, I will vote "no" on this bill whether it is presented in this form or in any other form.

In addition thereto I defy the gentleman from Philadelphia or any of the members of the minority to indicate in one of the Democratic platforms where we intimated that this was a party doctrine. When the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, immediately after the victory in November presented similar ideas to those contained in this bill, the entire state heralded that presentation as bad sportsmanship.

We won the victory in November and we expect to have the fruits and we expect to have those fruits where they will aid the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Up until the present time there have been a number of efficient, valuable servants of this Commonwealth adhering to the Republican party who have been maintained on our state payrolls—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. The gentleman is discussing the merits of the bill and not the motion.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The gentleman is entitled to discuss the merits of the bill and the resolution to place a bill on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, up to the present time as I have indicated, a number of valuable Republican employes of this Commonwealth have been continued on the payroll. In not one dismissal that I have seen has the Governor of this Commonwealth violated any of the statements that he has made. Also, and I wish to impress this upon the gentleman from Philadelphia, and the members of the minority, up to the present time there is still maintained any number of Republicans on the State payroll, who campaigned up and down the State in direct violation of their pledge and their promise, and I say to the gentlemen of the minority that if this bill in any manner or by any means attempts to perpetuate their continuance on the payroll, I am against it.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think any one will be fooled by a vote on this Resolution, because a vote on this resolution is practically a vote on the merits of the bill.

I rise to oppose this resolution and also this bill, because, in my opinion at this time, with the great change in liberalization in the State administration, I believe that the heads of the departments and the executives should be given wide latitude in the selection of their personnel, so that those policies, which the administration wishes to foster, may be carried out more liberally for the benefit of the citizens of this Commonwealth.

Most of the employes cannot help being imbued with the reactionary administration which preceded this liberal one and, therefore, a resolution or a bill of this nature would not be in place.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to thank the gentleman from Monroe. Apparently he endorses the principles of the measure affected by the resolution. He is hesitant about supporting the resolution, because the bill is weak and does not go as far in the direction of civil service as he would go. I call the gentleman's attention to the fact that only by placing this bill upon the calendar will be able to offer those amendments that would give the measure the vigor necessary in order to secure his support and in order that he may give free play to all his civil service sentiments, I hope that he will support the resolution to put the bill upon the calendar.

I am also indebted to the gentleman from York who frankly says that we wage political campaigns for jobs. That is a vastly different statement than the statement with which we went before the people prior to the last election. If we waged that campaign only for jobs, I am sorry I was in the fight, and I, knowing the gentleman from York as I do and knowing the strong idealism that animates his public utterances, I know that it is only an after thought that causes him to return to the Jeffersonian days, forgetting the days of Wilson and Cleveland and Roosevelt.

Mr. Speaker, it is true that the Democratic party in the last campaign, as I recollect the platform, did not have a civil service plank, but it is also true that the candidate for Governor said that no faithful, honest employe in the service of the State need fear for his job. I am proposing by means of this resolution that we do legally what the present administration is actually doing and which might be done capriciously. If we are going to save some of the Republicans and cast others of them into outer darkness, let us have a rule in law to go by, a rule in law that will test their fitness.

This present administration, as the gentleman from York has said, has continued many Republicans in office. Why? Presumably because they are efficient, because they are needed, and I, by means of this measure, simply take from the Governor's desk and from the desk of the Democratic State Chairman the decisions regarding personnel and place that responsibility in the hands of a personnel commission appointed by the Governor and legally responsible and subservient to the Governor and that is sound organization doctrine.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel, as chairman of the sub-committee considering this measure, that I should come to the defense of what I term the abuse placed upon our our leader by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

As Chairman of the sub-committee considering this measure, we did not feel that it was necessary to consult any administration leaders concerning the change. I do not think any member of this House should feel it necessary as a member of the sub-committee or as a member of a major committee to run to the administration to get their viewpoint on any particular measure. I believe every member of this House is sent here to use his own brains and to consider the merits of any particular measure. I therefore, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, will say that as chairman of the sub-committee, no one can the administration on this measure. It was reported back to committee with an open recommendation, and if I recall correctly, it came out with practically a unanimous vote on a negative recommendation.

Furthermore, referring to this particular measure, while it says a personnel commission, if you will refer to section four, page four, you will readily see that it gives the right to any employe to appeal to the personnel commission of the Dauphin County Court, and I submit to you gentlemen, minority side of the House as well as those on the majority side of the House, that we do not believe that any particular common pleas court in any county should have jurisdiction over His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth or of the State government in saying who should or should not remain upon the State payroll.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the debate that has gone so far with regard to this bill, with the exception of the remarks of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, has been remarkable for its lack of constructive ideas in the furtherance of good government.

I am sorry that this bill has been injected into the field of partisan politics, because it should not be a partisan matter, and I am confident it is intended by the sponsor to be in the interests of good government.

I have not heard from any member of the committee or from the gentlemen who represented the sub-committee any ideas which they had which would have improved this bill.

The sponsor has very ably pointed out that the only opportunity for the members of the House to improve any defects they may find will be to vote in favor of the motion to place it on the calendar. There is no member of this House who has shown more willingness and courtesy in considering amendments to his bills, who has consented to have them placed upon the postponed calendar, to have them passed over in order and all that sort of thing to oblige other members than the gentleman from Cambria.

We have heard a great deal of talk on both sides of the House with regards to social legislation. Possibly this is not part of anybody's platform, but if we are going to have social legislation we might as well begin at home, start right here in Harrisburg and afford some measure of protection to those loyal servants of the government who were not elected for two years but who in many cases have been serving the state for twenty years and trying to make a career in serving this Commonwealth.

If this bill is not perfect there will be an opportunity, I am sure, afforded by the sponsor for its improvement. Those of you who wish to hide behind the committee's recommendation and not go on record and show your hand with regard to where you stand should vote against this resolution. All of you who know where you stand and have the courage to express your convictions, as two or three people have already done, should certainly vote to place this bill on the calendar whether you are for or against the bill on its merits.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answering the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I have already stated that the bill was a hybrid. If I did not state the last time, I now state that it is incapable of amendment. In order to have a Civil Service Bill, it will be necessary to rewrite the entire bill. I am certain that the gentleman from Cambria desires to place before this House his own particular thoughts rather than mine. It is for that reason that we allowed it to come out with a negative recommendation. We certainly had the expression of the members of this House and I believe soon will understand their entire attitude on the bill.

To the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, I might add, since he said he heard nothing constructive, that certainly this bill is not constructive. It cannot be claimed that the only reason for the retention of an employe should be that the service of five years is constructive. I submit that this bill is incapable of amendment, so that you can have anything constructive on it. For that reason I again ask you to vote no.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to reply to the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, and to the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw. To the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, as to every statement he made as to what has been done by the administration in the firing and hiring of employes I thoroughly agree. There is no question that the statements that he makes and has made are correct. However, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, has so-well answered him on that question that for me to reiterate any reply would be surplusage.

The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, has likewise answered the query of the gentleman from York with respect to the campaign pledges made by His Excellency the Governor. I do not want to be considered as having accused the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of improperly hiring and firing employes. So much for the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

As to the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, I must say that his answer sort of amuses me. The Democratic administration, as we call it, has been able to put through this House most unpopular measures in which the administration was interested. I take the gentleman's word beyond any question that as chairman of the sub-committee he did not see fit to consult the administration. Whether he acted wisely and judiciously or not is his business and not my business, but I cannot help but direct the attention of this House and the attention of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that were the administration interested in the passage of this resolution, the administration having been able to force through this Democratic House many more unpopular measures than this, it would have been the easiest thing in the world for the administration to have put this resolution through this House. So that the failure of this bill to come out with a positive recommendation, and the failure, if there is a failure, to place this bill on the calendar is purely and simply the act and deed of the Democratic administration, and nobody can deny that fact.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Witkin and Mr. White and were as follows

CONSENT REFUSED TO MAKE STATEMENT.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House to make a statement.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the gentleman from Philadelphia to make a statement? Are there objections?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Washington insist upon his objection?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I do.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House give me consent to make a statement.

The SPEAKER. The only way the gentleman can obtain consent is to suspend Rule 14.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion.

HOUSE BILL NO. 775 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. STOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 775, Printer's No. 821, entitled:

An Act relating to the sale delivery weighing and importation of manure for mushroom growing making certain practices in connection therewith misdemeanors and fixing fines and penalties for the violation thereof providing for the payment of such fines into the State Treasury and requiring the Department of Agriculture to enforce the provisions of this act recalled from the Governor and laid upon which was the table be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. STOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. STOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 953.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 29, 1935.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a Resolution of the House of Representatives and Senate, recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 953, Printer's No. 1076, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. JACKSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. JACKSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JACKSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend page 1, line 9 of the title, by striking out after the word "are" and before the word "withdrawn" the word "[refused]"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the debate that ensued with respect to Resolution 116, my ability to comprehend answers to the questions that were made seemed to be questioned and the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, very properly stated that when the vote was taken on House Bill No. 116 I would find how the administration stood. I merely want to say that he was right.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of person privilege will be spread upon the journal.

HOUSE BILL AND SENATE MESSAGE TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1885, together with the message of the Senate be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR NON-CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1885.

An Act to amend section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by exempting from the provisions thereof persons fishing in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania holding a fishing license issued by the State of New York and persons fishing in the waters of the Pymatuning Lake holding a fishing license issued by the State of Ohio.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment. The vote had on final passage and third reading on said bill was reconsidered in the House of Representatives and the bill amended, in which amendments the Senate has non-concurred.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1220

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 29, 1935.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1220, Printer's No. 212, entitled "An Act to amend clause (e) of section five of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand forty-five) entitled 'An act providing for the establishment of a Bureau of Renabilitation in the Department of Labor and Industry and conferring upon the Commissioner of Labor and Industry the power to supervise and direct the rendering of certain physically handicapped persons fit to engage in remunerative occupations providing for the appointment of a chief of the bureau subordinate officers and employes and furnishing suitable accommodations and making an appropriation' by providing for furnishing artificial limbs to children over ten years of age."

This bill would permit the Department of Labor and Industry to furnish artificial limbs to children over ten years of age.

Under the present law the Department of Labor and Industry furnishes such appliances only to persons who have reached an age permitting them to be employed in the State.

On the other hand, the Department of Health has, at the present time, a service for physically handicapped children under sixteen years of age, which is conducted by its Bureau of Public Health Nursing. A special appropriation of $50,000 is available this biennium to the Department of Health to provide not only artificial appliances for children, but also braces, casts and orthopedic shoes and the services of orthopedic surgeons. The Department of Health has a staff specially trained for work in the physical rehabilitation of crippled children.

If this bill were to become a law, it would result in an over-lapping of the work of the two departments. This would be unnecessary and undesirable.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. HIRSCH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1147

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 29, 1935.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1147, Printer's No. 760, entitled "An Act creating a right to proceed upon appeals to the Supreme and Superior Courts without printing briefs and/or records or portions thereof under circumstances of poverty and providing penalties for falsehood in applying for the benefits thereof."

This bill would make it the duty of the Supreme and Superior Courts, upon a petition being filed in the manner and in the form prescribed by the bill, to permit the petitioner to proceed in forma pauperis and to omit printing in whole or in part his record and brief which would otherwise be required to be printed by the rules of the court. Where the printing of the record would be dispensed with, the manuscript record would be used by the court, and where the printing of the brief would be dispensed with, typewritten briefs would be used.

While it is true that the present rule is of the Supreme and Superior Courts require records and briefs to be printed, it is also true that both the Supreme and the Superior Courts make it a practice to waive this printing requirement in cases where it is shown by petition that a party to the proceeding is financially unable to defray the cost of printing. In other words, both the Supreme and the Superior Courts, in the exercise of their sound discretion, customarily do just what this bill would require them to do.

Moreover, the effect of this bill would be to suspend in certain cases rules of the appellate courts, which were adopted pursuant to an inherent power which resides in the judicial branch of government. Consequently, a serious constitutional question is presented whether the Legislature may by statute suspend a judicial rule not prescribed by statute.

While I am wholeheartedly in favor of the principle of the bill, I do not believe that it is necessary or advisable in view of the above circumstances.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May, 29, 1935.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1281, Printer's No. 1120, entitled "An Act To further amend section two thousand four hundred and two of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled 'An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined by adding thereto clause (k) providing for the leasing or sale of gas and oil under lands of the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza."

This bill would amend section 2402 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177) by authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies, with the consent and approval of the Governor, to lease to private enterprise State lands in possession of the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza for the purpose of extracting oil and gas from such lands. The money arising from such leasing would be required to be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury.

Undoubtedly the bill would likely bring additional revenue into the coffers of the Commonwealth. However, the resultant effects of the bill would far outweigh its revenue phase.

Inasmuch as the drainage area for the water supply of the institution constitutes part of the grounds of the institution, it is more than probable that the drilling for oil on such lands would contaminate the water supply of the institution,—a result that would be to the detriment of the health of the inmates and personnel and the economic status of the institution.

Moreover the resultant fumes from the oil and gas would be obnoxious and detrimental to the health of the inmates and personnel of the school.

The unsightliness of numerous derricks on the grounds of the school would be far from being desirable.

Also the presence upon the grounds of the institution of employes of private enterprise would make it most difficult to maintain the proper discipline so vital to the needs of a correctional institution such as the Pennsylvania Training School.

For the above reasons the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

The Insurance Commissioner may in his name as Liquidator of any such company association exchange society or order without leave of court prosecute or defend any action at law or in equity in any court in this Commonwealth or elsewhere relating to or affecting the property contracts or business of such dissolved company association exchange society or order but no action pending against it shall be continued against it or him after such dissolution in any court without leave of the court which made the order of liquidation nor shall such Liquidator be subject to suit in any other court without such leave unless he consents to appear therein upon advice of counsel The court making the order of liquidation may upon application of the Attorney General or the Liquidator issue such restraining orders or injunctions as it may deem proper to prevent any interference with the performance of the duties of the Liquidator or to assist him in the same or to prevent any attachment levy or other execution on property or funds in the hands of the Liquidator

The Insurance Commissioner as Liquidator of any such company association exchange society or order having any right to levy assessments upon its members policyholders or stockholders may levy such assessments in accord with its powers for the payment of its debts and claims against it and the reasonable expenses of Liquidation as estimated by the Liquidator as often as may be necessary to secure sufficient funds to pay the same and bring suits to recover and enforce such assessments which shall be presumed to be legal and regular unless the contrary be shown by those thus assessed or such Liquidator may apply to the court for an order levying an assessment upon such members policyholders or stockholders

The Insurance Commissioner as Liquidator of any such company association exchange society or order shall have the power to make reasonable adjustments and compromises with its debtors of any claim against them and with its policyholders and creditors of any claims against it in order to avoid litigation and shall not be surcharged for any such action performed in good faith with the advice of counsel or for making any sale of any of its assets at reputed market prices or at public auction for the purpose of liquidation but he shall not make any private sale of property of uncertain value without the approval of the court which made the order of liquidation and such court may approve any such sales provided notice of the application therefor be given by mail to at least ten of the persons having claims against such company association exchange society or order at any time after the order of liquidation is made

The Insurance Commissioner as Liquidator of any such company association exchange society or order shall have the foregoing powers and duties in addition to all those of a Receiver in Equity and any conferred or imposed elsewhere in this act although he is described merely as a Receiver in other sections of this act and the Attorney General may appoint or approve the appointment by the Liquidator of special counsel to assist him at the expense of the Commonwealth if the funds of the company association exchange society or order in the hands of the Liquidator shall not be sufficient to pay for the expenses of any litigation that shall appear to him to be beneficial to the policyholder and creditors thereof

The court making the order of liquidation may authorize the Insurance Commissioner as Liquidator of any such company association exchange society or order to enter into such contracts as the court may approve with any Ancillary Receivers or Receivers in Equity appointed in any other states or countries to conserve any property of rights of such company association exchange society or order therein regarding the liquidation of the same

Section 507 Insurance Commissioner to Supersede Other Receivers Whenever a receiver of an insurance company association exchange society or order is appointed by any court of this Commonwealth on motion of the Attorney General at the instance of the Insurance Commissioner such receiver shall forthwith supersede any received previously appointed by the decree of any court of this Commonwealth and shall likewise supersede any assignee or trustee previously appointed by such insurance company association exchange society or order

Whenever the Insurance Commissioner is appointed a Receiver for the property and business of a foreign or alien company association exchange society or order doing business in this Commonwealth the court appointing him shall have power to authorize him to permit any part of such liquidation to be carried on by any Liquidator or Receiver appointed under the laws of the State or country in which such insurer was organized if such action appears to be for the benefit of policyholders members and creditors within this Commonwealth provided that proper assurances are given that their claims if allowed shall share pro-rata with claims of the same class in all the assets received by such foreign or alien Liquidator and that arrangements satisfactory to said Court are made regarding the necessary expenses of such Ancillary Receivership including the mailing of proper notices to domestic policyholders members or creditors regarding the manner of filing and proving their claims with such receiver and his expenses of investigating the same and reporting his recommendations regarding allowance thereof to such foreign Liquidator or Receiver

(c) Signal Lamps and Mechanical Signal Devices 1 Whenever a motor vehicle is equipped with a signal lamp or a signal device [the signal lamp shall be] so constructed and located on the vehicle as to give a signal of intention to stop or to turn right or left the signal shall be yellow or red [or green] in color [which] and shall be plainly visible in normal sunlight and at night from a distance of one hundred (100) feet to the front and rear of the vehicle but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light except that a stop signal need be visible only from the rear and all such signals shall be of a type which at the time of [its] their use [is] are approved by the secretary

2 When a vehicle is equipped with a mechanical signal the mechanical signal shall be [so constructed and located on the vehicle as to give a signal plainly visible from a distance of one hundred (100) feet to the rear of the vehicle] self illuminated when in use at the times mentioned in section eight hundred one (801) and shall be of a type which at the time of its use is approved by the secretary

[(d) Reflector Any vehicle may be equipped with a reflector so located as to reflect rays of light thrown upon such reflector]

Penalty any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 15, page 20, line 14, by striking out the word 'and" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or"

Amend Section 15, page 20, line 15, by striking out after the word "light" the following: "except that a stop signal need be visible only from the rear"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth sections were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 16 That the said act is hereby amended by adding to Article eight the following section eight hundred two and one-tenth eight hundred two and two-tenths eight hundred two and three-tenths and eight hundred two and four-tenths

Section 802.1 Multiple Beam Road Lighting Equipment Except as hereinafter provided the headlamps or the auxiliary driving lamps or combinations thereof on motor vehicles shall be so arranged that the driver may select at will between distributions of light projected to different elevations subject to the following requirements and limitations

(a) There shall be an uppermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed and of such intensity as to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least three hundred fifty (350) feet ahead for all conditions of loading The maximum intensity of this uppermost distribution of light or composite beam one (1) degree of arc or more above the horiontal level of the lamps when the vehicle is not loaded shall not exceed eight thousand (8000) apparent candlepower and at no other point of the distribution of light or composite beam shall there be an intensity of more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) apparent candlepower

(b) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed that

1 When the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light which is directed to the left of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of ten (10) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes

2 When the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light which is directed to the right of the prolongation of the extreme life side of the vehicle shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes

3 In no event shall any of the high intensity of such lowermost distribution of light or composite beam project higher than a level of forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

(c) Where one intermediate beam is provided the beam on the left side of the road shall be in conformity with subsection (b) one of this section except when arranged in accordance with the practice specified in subsection (e)

(d) All road lighting beams shall be so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal a person or vehicle at a distance of at least one hundred (100) feet ahead

(e) All road lighting equipment manufactured and installed on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six shall be so arranged that whenever any beam is used which is not in conformity with subsection (a) of this section two (2) white or yellow lights one (1) on each side of the vehicle visible to an oncoming driver and to the driver of said vehicle shall be lighted except that other suitable alternate means may be provided for indicating to the driver behind the light when such beams are on Indicator lights shall not be connected otherwise than as required in this paragraph Beam indicator lights and front parking lights shall be so connected that neither of said lights shall be lighted when a beam is in use which conforms with subsection (b) one of this section

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.2 Use of Multiple Beam Road Lighing Equipment

(a) Whenever a motor vehicle is being operated on a roadway or shoulder adjacent thereto during the times specified in section eight hundred one (801) the driver shall use a distribution of light or composite beam directed high enough and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a safe distance in advance of the vehicle subject to the following requirements and limitations

(b) Whenever the driver of a vehicle approaches an oncoming vehicle within five hundred (500) feet such driver shall use a distribution of light or composite beam so aimed that the glaring rays are not projected into the eyes of the oncoming driver and in no case shall the high intensity portion which is projected to the left of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle be aimed higher than the center of the lamp from which it comes at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead and in no case higher than a level of forty-two (42) inches above the level upon which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.3 Single Beam Road Lighting Equipment Headlamps arranged to provide a single distribution of light not supplemented by auxiliary driving lamps shall be permitted on motor vehicles manufactured and sold prior to one (1) year after the effective date of this act in lieu of multiple beam road lighting equipment herein specified if the single distribution of light complies with the following requirements and limitations

(a) The headlamps shall be so aimed that when the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

(b) The intensity shall be sufficient to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet

(c) Any motor vehicle may be operated under the conditions specified in section eight hundred one (801) when equipped with two (2) lighted lamps upon the front thereof capable of revealing persons and objects seventy-five (75) feet ahead in lieu of lamps otherwise required Provided however that at no time shall be it operated at a speed in excess of twenty (20) miles per hour.

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.4 Number of Driving Lamps Required or Permitted

(a) At all times specified in section eight hundred one (801) at least two (2) lighted lamps shall be displayed one on each side at the front of every motor vehicle exceept when such vehicle is parked subject to the regulations governing lights on parked vehicles

(b) Whenever a motor vehicle equipped with headlamps as herein required is also equipped with any auxiliary lamps or a spot lamp or any other lamp on the front thereof projecting a beam of an intensity greater than three hundred (300) candlepower not more than a total of four (4) of any such lamps on the front of a vehicle shall be lighted at any one time when upon a highway

(c) Any lighted lamp or illuminating device upon a motor vehicle other than headlamps spot lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than three hundred (300) candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the roadway on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than seventy-five (75) feet from the vehicle

(d) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than two (2) side cowl or fender lamps which shall emit an amber or white light without glare

(e) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than one (1) running board courtesy lamp on each side thereof which shall emit a white or amber light without glare

(f) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with a back-up lamp either separately or in combination with another lamp except that no such back-up lamp shall be continuously lighted when the motor vehicle is in forward motion

(g) No person shall operate or move any vehicle except fire department and fire patrol apparatus upon a highway with a red light displayed on the front thereof

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 17 That section eight hundred three of the said act is hereby repealed [Section 803 Requirements as to Head Lamps and Auxiliary Driving Lamps]

[(a) The head lamps or head lamp of motor vehicles shall be so constructed arrangeed adjusted and attached that except as provided in this act they will at all times mentioned in this act and under normal atmospheric conditions and on a level road produce a driving light sufficient to render clearly discernible all vehicles persons or substantial objects one hundred sixty (160) feet ahead but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of such head lamps or head lamp Provided That for motorcycles the distance at which vehicles persons or substantial objects shall be clearly discernible shall be one hundred fifteen (115) feet]

[(b) Head lamps or head lamp shall be deemed to comply with the foregoing provisions prohibiting glaring and dazzling lights if no part of the main bright portion of the headlamp beam rises above a horizontal plane passing through the lamp centers parallel to the level of the highway upon which the loaded vehicle stands and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches at a distance seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the vehicle]

[(c) Whenever a motor vehicle is being operated upon a highway or a portion thereof which is sufficiently lighted to reveal vehicles persons or substantial objects on such highway at a distance of two hundred (200) feet ahead of motor vehicle it shall be permissible to dim the headlamps or headlamp or to tilt the beams or beams downward or to substitute therefor the light from side lights or auxiliary driving lamps subject to the restrictions as to tilted beams and auxiliary driving lamps as provided in this act]

[(d) Restrictions on Lamps Bulbs and Reflectors Any device other than lamps spot lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than twenty-five (25) candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the surface on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than fifty (50) feet from the vehicle]

[Every electric lamp or bulb used in any head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp on any motor vehicle shall not exceed the mean spherical candlepower designated in certificate of approval as issued by the secretary]

[Every electric lamp or bulb used in any side light shall not exceed four (4) mean spherical candlepower]

[Every reflector which is used as a part of any head lamp shall have a highly polished silvered or glass or other reflecting surface and shall be free from dents rust and other imperfections]

[(e) Whenever a motor vehicle meets another vehicle an any highway it shall be permissible to tilt the beams or beams of the headlamps or headlamp downward or to substitute therefor the light from auxiliary driving lamps subject to the requirement that he tilted beams or beam or the beams from the auxiliary driving lamps shall give sufficient illumination under normal atmospheric conditions and on an approximately level highway to render clearly discernible vehicles persons or substantial objects seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the motor vehicle but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of the motor vehicle Provided That at all times required in this act at least two (2) lights shall be displayed on the front of and on opposite sides of every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle which shall display at least one (1) light as provided in this act]

[Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecuion and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days]

Section 18 That section 804 of the said act is hereby repealed [Section 804 Acetylene Lights]

[Motor vehicles may be equipped with two (2) acetylene headlamps of aproximately equal candlepower when equipped with clear plain glass fronts bright spherical or Mangan mirrors not to exceed six (6) inches in diameter and standard acetylene five-eights (⅝) foot burners not more and not less and which do not project a glaring or dazzling light into the eyes of approaching persons except that motorcycles may be equipped with one (1) acetylene headlamp of these specifications]

[Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days]

The nineteenth section was read as follows:

Section 19 That section 807 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 807 Revocation of Certificates of Approval of Lighting Devices

(a) Any certificate of approval however heretofore or hereafter issued may be revoked by the secretary after a hearing before the secretary or his representative of which the person named therein or his successor in interest shall be given reasonable notice or opportunity to hear or to be heard upon the ground that the lighting device or mechanical signal device does not comply with the provisions of this act regulations adopted or is not being supplied in production in accordance with specifications original blueprint assemblies or sample devices originally submitted However revocation of certificates of approval of devices heretofore or hereafter approved shall not take effect until three (3) months after decision of the secretary revoking same

(b) The secretary may adopt uniform standard specifications for head lamps auxiliary driving lamps rear lamps signal lamps and may promulgate certain rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act to govern his decision in approving any lighting device or mechanical signal device or revoking any certificate of approval issued for such devices

(c) Certificates approving each type of head lamp device hereafter issued by the secretary will expire and be void after [two (2)] four (4) years from date of issue unless the manufacturer has prior to the expiration date made application for renewal of such certificate furnishing two (2) pair of samples for test purposes in accordance with this act together with the fee provided in this act and new certificate of approval has been issued

(d) Certificates approving each type of auxiliary driving lamp rear lamp mechanical signal device and signal lamp hereafter issued by the secretary will not expire [and be void after two (2) years from date of issue unless the manufacturer has prior to the expiration date made application for renewal of any such certificate furnishing two (2) samples for test purposes in accordance with this act together with fee provided in this act and new certificate of approval has been issued] until revoked for cause by the secretary

(e) When no renewal application is made and when an application for renewal of certificate of approval is refused the head lamp auxiliary driving lamp rear lamp mechanical signal device or signal lamp will become illegal for use on motor vehicles after [two (2)] six (6) years from date of expiration of certificate Provided however new motor vehicles will not be title unless the lighting devices are of an approved type for which certificates of approval are in effect at the time of application for title

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 19, page 30, line 22, by inserting after the word "device" the word "reflector"

Amend Section 19, page 31, line 5, by inserting after the words 'signal lamps" the word "reflectors"

Amend Section 19, page 31, line 7, by inserting after the word "device" the word "reflector"

Amend Section 19, page 31, line 19, by inserting after the word "device" the word "reflector"

Amend Section 19, page 32, line 2, by inserting after the word 'device" the word "reflector"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth sections were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 20 That subsection (a) of section eight hundred eight of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 808 Enforcement and Authority to Refuse Title or Registration

(a) A head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp arranged to provide a single distribution of light will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of any main beam of ligh projected by it is at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead of the motor vehicle on an approximately level stretch of highway projected on the body of a person or on a motor vehicle or on any object at a height greater than the distance of the centers of the lamps from the highway A head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp arranged to provide a single distribution of light and mounted on a motor vehicle at a height higher than forty-two (42) inches above the highway will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of the beam of light projected by it on an approximately level stretch of highway be higher than forty-two (42) inches above the highway seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the vehicle

Section 21 That subsections (c) (d) (e) (f) (g) (h) and (i) of section eight hundred eleven of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 811 Brakes

(c) [all such brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall conform to regulations further provided in this act] Every trailer or semitrailer of a gross weight of three thousand (3,000) pounds or more when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and to hold such vehicle for at least fifteen (15) minutes and so designed as to be applied by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab and said brakes shall be so designed and connected that in case of an accidental breakaway of the towed vehicle the brakes shall be automatically applied

(d) [On and after July first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one all new motor vehicles titled or registered in this Commonwealth shall be equipped with brakes as respectively required in this act for different classes of motor vehicles capable of conforming to braking requirements further provided in this act] Every new motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer sold in this Commonwealth on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and operated upon the highways shall be equipped with service brakes upon all wheels of every such vehicle except any motorcycle and except that any semitrailer of less than one thousand five hundred (1,500) pounds gross weight need not be equipped with brakes

(e) On a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material [the service brake shall be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet at or a rate which corresponds to such performance] where the grade does not exceed one (1) per centum the service brakes upon any motor vehicle or combination of vehicles except as herein provided shall be adequate to stop such vehicle or vehicles when traveling at a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of thirty (30) feet or at a rate corresponding to such performance

(f) [On a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material the emergency brake shall be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance] Under the above conditions the emergency brake shall be adequate to stop such vehicle or vehicles within a distance of fifty-five (55) feet and said emergency brake shall be adequate to hold such vehicle or vehicles stationary upon any grade upon which operated

(g) [Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with semitrailers attached exceeding seven thousand (7000) pounds gross weight shall be capable of stopping on a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material within the following distances or at rates corresponding in each instance to the several performances specified

Within fifty (50) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon simultaneous application of the service and emergency brakes

Within seventy-five (75) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon application of the service brake alone

Within seventy-five (75) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon application of the emergency brake alone] Under the above conditions the service brakes upon a motor vehicle equipped with two wheel brakes only and when permitted hereunder shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of forty (40) feet and the emergency brake shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of fifty-five (55) feet

(h) [When any motor vehicle with trailer attached is operated in combination the application of brakes shall be construed to mean the application of all brakes on the motor vehicle and trailer which are normally capable of being operated simultaneously by the operator] All braking distances specified in this section shall apply to all vehicles mentioned whether such vehicles are not loaded or are loaded to the maximum capacity permitted under this act

(i) All brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall be so adjusted as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 22 That section eight hundred twelve of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 812 Brake Enforcement

(a) [The brakes on a motor vehicle will be presumed to be unsafe and to require immediate attention if on a dry approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material the service brake will not be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet and the emergency brake under the same conditions within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance except that the brakes on commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with semitrailers attached exceeding seven thousand (7000) pounds gross weight will be presumed to be unsafe and to require immediate attention if on a dry hard, approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material both brakes applied simultaneously will not be capable of stopping such vehicles from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet and the service and emergency brakes applied separately under the same conditions within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance or when on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum motor vehicle will drift with either service or emergency brake applied singly] It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle or a combination of vehicles upon the highways of this Commonwealth with brakes not conforming with the requirements of this act

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle without required number of brakes in good working condition The owner or operator of any motor vehicle who is notified by a peace officer that such brake or brakes are improperly adjusted or are unsafe or unfit or in need of correction adjustment or repairs shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours within which to correct adjust or repair such brakes to conform with the requirements of this act To submit a certificate to the peace officer giving the notification issued or executed by an official brake adjusting station showing that within forty-eight (48) hours after such notification the brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired to conform with the requirements of this act shall relieve the owner or operator from arrest Unless such certificate is received by the peace officer within five (5) days from the date of notification showing that the brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired as required in this act information for arrest will be made Provided That when service and emergency brakes applied together will not stop a motor vehicle or combination of vehicles within distances defined in this act or hold a motor vehicle or combination of vehicles [on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum] stationary on any grade upon which operated the owner or operator may be required to make temporary correction adjustment or repairs before being permitted to proceed with the motor vehicle or combination of vehicles

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 23 That subsections (f) (g) (h) and (i) of section eight hundred thirteen of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 813 Official Inspection Stations

(f) It shall be unlawful for any [such designated official inspection station] person to furnish give or sell to any owner or operator of a motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer or to place in or on any motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer a certificate of inspection and approval unless an official inspection of its mechanism and equipment shall have been made and the motor vehicle trailer or semiltrailer with the provisions of this act It shall be unlawful for any such designated official inspection station to furnish loan give or sell a certificate or certificates of inspection and approval to any other such designated official inspection station or any other persons except those entitled to receive them under the provisions of this act

[(g) It shall be unlawful in case of transfer of ownership of any used motor vehicle for the owner to submit with his application for registration a certificate of inspection and approval unless an official inspection shall have been made and the vehicle found to conform with the provisions of this act]

[(h)] (g) Any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority may stop any motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer and require the owner or operator to demonstrate that such vehicles conform with the provisions of this act If such demonstration discloses the necessity for corrections adjustments or repairs to such vehicle the owner shall be notified that unless a certificate issued or executed by a representative of an official inspection station is submitted within five (5) days to the peace officer indicating that the necessary corrections adjustments or repairs have been made information for the arrest of the owner or operator will be made for the specific violation or violations of this act noted at the time of modification Provided That when service and emergency brakes applied simultaneously will not stop a motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer within distance defined in this act or hold a motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum or when the lighting equipment is glaring or insufficient or not in operation or is not equipped with a mirror or windshield wiper as defined and required in this act the owner or operator may be required to correct the faulty condition before being permitted to proceed with the vehicle and may be prosecuted for the specific violation of this act

[(i)] (h) An official inspection station and the records thereof shall be open for inspection by any peace officer or department employe The owner of an official inspection station shall file with the department on a form prescribed and furnished by the department such information relating to daily inspections as the secretary may require

Section 24 That subsections (b) and (g) of section eight hundred twenty-three of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 823 Official Inspections

(b) If such inspections disclose the necessity for adjustments corrections or repairs in order to bring the motor vehicle in conformance with the provisions of this act it shall be compulsory upon the owner to have such adjustments corrections or repairs made within the [period designated in the hereinbefore mentioned proclamation] periods required in this act

(g) During the period designated in the hereinbefore mentioned proclamation any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority may stop any motor vehicle and require the owner or operator to display an official certificate or other satisfactory proof of inspection for the motor vehicle being operated It shall be unlawful for any such certificate to be displayed on a motor vehicle or by the owner or operator unless an official inspection of its mechanism or equipment shall have been made and the motor vehicle conforms to the provisions of this act

Section 25 That section eight hundred twenty-four of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one thousand sixty-four) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 824 Danger and Caution Signals

(a) Every motor bus and every motor omnibus for the carriage of passengers for hire except taxicabs and every commercial motor vehicle having a carrying capacity of two tons or over when operated upon a highway outside of a business or residence district at any time from one (1) hour after sunset to one (1) hour before sunrise shall be equipped with [at least two red or yellow burning danger or caution signals with friction cap ignition similar in type to a time-burning railway fusee signal and so constructed as to burn with a brilliant red or yellow light for not less than fifteen (15) minutes

Whenever any such vehicle becomes disabled while within the limits of the traveled part of a highway to such an extent that it cannot proceed under its own power and its lighting is so disabled that it constitutes a menace to other vehicular traffic the operator thereof shall cause to be continuously displayed on the surface of the highway the red or yellow-burning danger or caution signals as herein required in such manner as to prevent personal injuries loss of life and damage to property by collision] a sufficient number of flares not less than three (3) or electric lanterns or other signals capable of continuously producing three warning lights each visible from a distance of at least five hundred (500) feet for a period of at least eight (8) hours except that vehicles transporting flammables may carry red reflectors in place of the other signals hereinbefore mentioned

Every such flare lantern signal or reflector shall be of a type approved by the secretary and he shall publish lists of those devices which he has approved as adequate for the purposes of this section

(b) Whenever any such vehicle and its lighting equipment are disabled during the period when lighted lamps must be displayed on vehicles and such vehicle cannot immediately be removed from the main traveled portion of a highway outside of a business or residence district or if the lighting equipment on any such vehicle is not disabled but due to its position upon the highway or by reason of contours or curves in such highway it may constitute a menace to other vehicular traffic the operator or other person in charge of such vehicle shall cause such flares lanterns or other signals to be lighted and placed upon the highway one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet in advance of such vehicle one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet to the rear of the vehicle and the third upon the highway side of the vehicle except that if the vehicle is transporting flammables three (3) red reflectors may be so placed in lieu of such other signals and no open burning flare shall be placed adjacent to any such last mentioned vehicle

(c) No person shall at any time operate a vehicle transporting explosives as a cargo or part of a cargo upon a highway unless it carries flares or electric lanterns as herein required but such flares or electric lanterns must be capable of producing a red light and shall be displayed upon the highway when and as required in this section

Penalty Any owner or operator who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a migstrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 26 That subsection (f) of Section nine hundred two of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 902 Size of Vehicles and Loads

(f) It shall be unlawful for any person to transport on a motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer operated for the carriage of passengers for hire a load [in excess] of twenty-five (25) per centum in excess of the registered seating capacity or for any person to cause or permit any such operation Provided however That a child under the age of six years shall not be counted as a person when computing load on any such vehicle
